

BAPTIST COLLEGE, MONTREAL.

Rev. J. M. CRAMP, A.M., President, and Professor of Theology,
Mental and Moral Philosophy, and Ecclesiastical History.

Rev. F. BOSWORTH, A.M., Professor of Oriental and Classical Literature, and Natural Philosophy.

Mr. J. TOVELL, English Teacher.

Mons. W. BENZIGER, French Teacher.

IN compliance with numerous requests, an ACADEMICAL DEPARTMENT has been opened, for the instruction of young gentlemen who are not of sufficient age to enter on the Collegiate Course, or whose parents wish them to be prepared for mercantile pursuits.

In this Department the Pupils receive instruction in the usual branches of Education, Classical, Mathematical, or Commercial, as may be required.

Due attention is daily given to the religious instruction of the Pupils.

Lectures on Natural Philosophy and Chemistry are given on Saturday mornings.

TUITION FEES:—Ten Pounds per annum, payable in advance. For the Commercial Branches only: under eight years of age, Six Pounds; above that age, Seven Pounds.

Boarders, £30 per annum, providing their own bedding and lights; washing not included.

Application to be made to the President of the College.