PRESBYTERIAN HOME MISSIONS
 Rev. Messrs. Ross and Dickie Bring Satisfactory Report From Halifax
 The home mission work of the Presbyterian church in the maritime provinces has been carried on this year in a most successful manner in spite of war conditions. At a meeting of the synod's home mission committee in Halifax yesterday reports showed that all the fields with the exception of two had been filled during the summer months. Many of the students have enlisted but the shortage was supplied by young men from Princeton University, who proved satisfactory. The committee had expected a shrinkage in the revenue, but were agreeably surprised to find the receipts well up to the usual standard.
 Rev. James Ross, superintendent of home missions for New Brunswick, and Rev. Gordon Dickie of St. John were present at the meeting and returned this morning.

"SERVICE FIRST" NEW PHONE MOTTO
 Impressed on District Superintendents at Provincial Conference Which Closed Last Night With Banquet—Early Days Recalled

The two day conference of the district superintendents of the New Brunswick Telephone Company was brought to a close last evening with a banquet at Bond's restaurant. Twelve superintendents from various parts of the province and ten of the leading officials of the company were present and the occasion proved a most enjoyable one. The menu for the elaborate dinner was contained in a handsomely gotten up souvenir folder and was described in highly technical telephone terms. After full justice had been done to the dinner there were the usual patriotic toasts, a special toast to the men in the trenches, including two of their former directors, Lieut.-Col. McAvity and Lieut.-Col. McAvity, and the two men who have gone from the staff, including Sergeant R. Smith, who has been wounded. "Our Company" was responded to by almost every member present. A. W. McMackin who has been connected with the business in St. John from the time the services started with four telephones, and G. C. Peters, who has watched the Moncton exchange grow from twenty-three to 1246 instruments, told of his experiences in the early days and S. B. Ebbett of Fredericton gave the gathering the benefit of his study of other exchanges during a recent transcontinental trip. One of the main points emphasized at the conference which has just closed is the new motto of the company, "Service First," a watchword which was adopted as an inspiration for every member of the staff and as an indication of the policy of the management.

HE SAW RALPH MARKHAM KILLED

Letter From Norman Borden of Sussex Who Has Been Recommended For D. C. M.

Frank Borden of Sussex, enjoys the proud distinction of having three sons fighting for his empire—Norman, Walter and Aubrey. The two latter are still in the trenches, or were when last heard from, while Norman, who was recommended to receive the D. C. M. for valor displayed at the battle of Ypres, is convalescing at a Red Cross Hospital in England. The following is part of an interesting letter received by Mr. Borden last week from his son, Norman, dated November 5, from the Red Cross Hospital, Middlewich, Cheshire, England: "Very few are left of the first Canadian Battalions that went to France, where we went into the battle of Ypres, our platoon was about sixty strong, and only twelve answered roll call, and another platoon in the same company came back with seven men. I saw Major Ralph Markham when he was killed. He had another officer of the Canadian Seaforth Highlanders were struck by a German shell. I was very lucky to get off as I did; a 'whizz bang' burst right behind me. They come so fast that it is impossible to get out of their way, and they are full of bullets about the size of twenty gauge shot guns. "Some places the German trenches and ours are only about twenty yards apart, and they have been there a year now. There is so much barbed wire that it is hard to get at them. I got a fine chance at them in Ypres. There were a lot of German snipers in an old house. They had killed a lot of our fellows the day before, so we turned the tables on them the following day. There were about fifty of them in the old house and they began to run out one after the other, and every time they would run out, two or three of us would fire together. They were about four hundred yards away, and I think we got a lot of them. "The same day the Germans began to advance and we had not many men left. The soldiers came on to about seventy yards in great numbers, so we had to fall back for fear of being taken prisoners. They got quite a number of our fellows cut and they could not get back. The few of us who were left in our little fort, made the night before, had to fall back and we did three of us on this part of a German platoon came and they began to run out one after the other, and every time they would run out, two or three of us would fire together. They were about four hundred yards away, and I think we got a lot of them. "The same day the Germans began to advance and we had not many men left. NO BUSINESS FOR THE PRUNE CONTRACTOR

Fredericton Soldiers do Not Eat This Boarding House Delicacy—Diphtheria at the Capital

(Special to Times)
 Fredericton, Nov. 26.—Twelve houses at Gibson and St. Marys have been quarantined on account of diphtheria. Mrs. Robert Fletcher was taken down with the disease this morning. The police commission met yesterday but took no action on the matter. A local grocer, who some weeks ago was awarded a contract for supplying prunes to the troops stationed here, complains that there is no demand among men in khaki for this popular boarding house article of diet. So far he has not supplied a single prune. Potatoes have advanced in price during the past few days. They are now retailing at $2.25 per barrel and shippers are paying $2.10 delivered at sidings on the Gibson branch of the C. P. R.

IS THERE GRAFT IN N. B. HAY CONTRACTS?

In a letter to the Carleton Sentinel F. B. Carvell, M.P., charges that B. F. Smith's Company "has the sole contract for pressing hay in New Brunswick, and gets $28 a ton for it in St. John, that is, a ton to the farmers and that this and the freight and cost of pressing and delivery will total only $18, leaving $10 a ton profit, and his contract may be for double that quantity."

SHOT GERMAN SNIPER

War Experience of Corporal E. D. Howard of St. John

Mrs. Howard, wife of Corp. E. D. Howard, has received an interesting letter from him from the firing line in which he tells of some of his experiences. His horse was shot from under him one morning recently by a German sniper, but some of his pals and himself got him and he will not shoot any more horses. Corp. Howard tells of having recently been talking to Corp. E. C. Clark and Driver C. E. Campbell and it was a pleasure to sit and chat with friends from the "home town."

FROM GUNNER J. C. BROWN

St. John Soldier's Letter With Some Lines From Front About the Slackers
 An interesting description of his experiences at the front with the Ammunition Column, has been received from Gunner J. C. Brown, formerly of the staff of Vassie & Co., Ltd. The weather had been bad for the last few weeks, he wrote, and there was much mud. But the boys were enjoying themselves, and the experience was worth while. Gunner Brown sent along a caustic comment contained in a small paper published at the front by some of the Canadian boys, and of interest to those engaged in recruiting at home. It referred to the return of a wounded soldier and his appeal for more men, made at a recruiting meeting. His appeal fell on deaf ears, the verse read, because the audience was composed of women, girls and grey-haired men. The lines continue:

"For when the slacker sees that listening crowd,
 He gives it quite the widest kind of berth,
 To hear his own pet sins denounced aloud,
 Annoys him more than anything on earth.
 Seek him at cinemas, you'll find him there,
 Convinced by Charlie Chaplin's priceless touch,
 But at recruiting meetings in the Square—
 Thank you, lads, he knows too much!"
$1,000 FOR PATRIOTIC FUND
 In remitting the check for $1,000 to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, Attorney-General Baxter sent the following letter:
 "Dear Mr. Allan—In sending you the enclosed check for the Patriotic Fund, I desire to say that I think the local management is as deserving of credit for its work as the fund is for support."
