

FUSILIERS TAKE McAVITY TROPHY

Excellent Shooting on Local Range on Saturday in Sergeants' Mess Shoot

The greatest team shooting match since the war was witnessed on the local range over the week-end, when the Saint John Fusiliers team won the silver cup donated by J. L. McAvity to the Garrison Sergeants' Mess at their last annual banquet.

Saturday's shoot was conducted by the sergeants' mess, S-Sgt. A. J. Weatherall, secretary of the mess, looking after the details of the match called "The Conditions of the match called for five men teams, coaching allowed, the cup to be won outright, and the ranges to be 200, 300 and 400 yards, the most difficult of the shorter ranges. Six teams competed and some of the best shots of the city were on one or the other of the various teams.

Saturday was a splendid day for shooting, the weather being warm and just sufficient wind to keep the shooters on edge.

The outstanding features of the shoot were the consistent shooting of the Fusiliers, they leading every range, the really fine individual scores of Lieut. J. T. Downey, of the Civilian R. A. and C. Q. M. S. H. R. McLaughlin, of the Fusiliers, who each scored 100 out of a possible 105.

The Artillery Association offered a spoon to their members for the highest score, which was won by Sgt. L. S. Seavey. The scores made by the teams follow:

Tunney Will Last
About Three Rounds

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 14.—That Gene Tunney will succumb to the punches of Jack Dempsey in three rounds was the opinion expressed here this afternoon by Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia light-heavyweight, who has fought Tunney.

"I don't think Tunney will go three full rounds," with Dempsey," said Loughran. "Even if Dempsey is only 80 per cent as good on Sept. 23 as he is now he can take all the heavyweights prospects and beat them all in the same ring."

SONG BOX REVUE IS HIT AT QUEEN SQ.

Large Numbers Attend to Enjoy Opening of Jimmie Evans Company's Entertainment

The standing room only sign was shown early in the evening at the Queen Square Theatre yesterday, when the Jimmie Evans attraction, "The Song Box Revue," opened its engagement. The popularity of this company was testified to in the eager rush for seats displayed by the numbers that thronged the theatre yesterday.

The snappy, clean bill offered by the company as an opening was well staged, the settings being very effective. Mention should also be made of the costumes worn during the progress of the entertainment. That the efforts of the company were appreciated was evidenced by the generous applause given the various numbers, the whole bill getting a very hearty reception.

Among the special numbers, mention should be made of Margie Loomis and company in "You've got to know how to love 'em"; and Winnie Winslow and Wally Hall in a dance number that is a delightful exposition of grace and movement. "Mother, I love you," "song picture" innovation, was especially well received and is expected to prove a great favorite, as should also

STRONG SCENES IN GAIETY PICTURE

Jack Holt, Noah Beery and Billie Dove Lead in Western Film

Again Zane Grey and Paramount have joined hands in glorifying the Great West, and the result revealed itself last night at the Gaiety Theatre in "The Light of Western Stars."

The story is placed in the Arizona cattle country, back in those adventurous days when it was America's last frontier. Jack Holt is a dare-devil cowboy, Noah Beery a bandit chief and Billie Dove an adorable heroine.

The essentials of Mr. Grey's original story have been carefully preserved. The action reaches a point of tremendous suspense when Berry captures Miss Dove and Holt, and forces the latter to take the "walk of death"—a favorite form of execution at that time. Holt's escape and the

SCREEN VERSION OF SIBERIA IS HERE

Thrilling Dramatic Film Shown at Palace Theatre, With Prominent Players

As a stage play, "Siberia" was a dramatic sensation about 25 years ago. Millions have seen it and have been thrilled by it. Now Fox Films has adapted it to the screen and, because of the wider scope of the camera, it is even more dramatic and thrilling.

"Siberia" opened a two-day run at the Palace Theatre yesterday. It pictures conditions in Russia in the heyday of Czar Nicholas.

The story has to do with the beautiful daughter of Andrei Vronsky, a cynical overlord, who is not in sympathy with her father's cruelty to the peasants under his control. Alma Bab-son, Sonia's brother, Kyrill, a young physician, sides with her.
Lou Tellegen plays Igor Kaplan, an avowed champion of freedom. It is a strikingly dramatic picture.

Jack Sharkey Stops Riverberi of Italy

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 14.—Jack Sharkey, Boston heavyweight, last night scored a technical knockout over Orlando Riverberi of Italy, in the third round of a scheduled ten round bout at the Laurel Garden Arena. The battle was fierce while it lasted. Sharkey himself was floored for a short count in the first round, and in the ensuing rounds, dropped the Italian four times. Referee Henry Lewis stopping the bout. Sharkey weighed 191; Riverberi 185.
