MINIMUM WAGES SET FOR ONTARIO

List of Varying Scales is Proposed for Textile Industries.

Toronto, May 29.—Following is a summary of proposed orders respecting female workers in textile factories, as announced by the Minimum Wage Board of which Dr. J. W. Macmillan is chairman. These orders, the board states, are the same as those now in force for a number of other factory trades.

Toronto.—Experienced adults over eighteen years of age, $12.40 per week; inexperienced adults, over eighteen, six months at $10 and six months at $11; young girls, under eighteen, six months at $8, six months at $9 and six months at $10.

Other cities over 30,000 population.—Experienced adults, over eighteen, $11.50; inexperienced adults, over eighteen, six months at $9.50 and six months at $10.50; young girls, under eighteen, six months at $7, six months at $8, six months at $9, and six months at $10.

Cities and towns between 5,000 and 30,000 population.—Experienced adults over eighteen, $11; inexperienced adults over eighteen, six months at $9 and six months at $10; young girls, under eighteen, six months at $7, six months at $8, six months at $9, and six months at $10.

All the rest of the province.—Experienced adults, over eighteen, $10; inexperienced adults, over eighteen, six months at $8 and six months at $9; young girls, under eighteen, six months at $6, six months at $7, six months at $8, and six months at $9.

These rates do not affect office workers. For piece-workers, it is sufficient if 80 per cent receive the minimum; and the wages may be averaged over a period not exceeding three months.

At least half the workers in any factory must be experienced adults, the report declares.

The minimum wage board will hold a public hearing in its office, Toronto, on June 1, at 9 p.m. Any comment or criticism may be presented then, or sent to the board before that date, the board points out.

She could eat anything —without indigestion or sleeplessness

For a time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond.

Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank. She found she could eat anything and sleep splendidly afterward.

Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juices. Appetite is always kept normal and you are protected against indigestion.

Add 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your daily diet. You will find that your whole digestive system is greatly benefited. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

NOT LIKELY TO INVITE CANADA

Many, However, Would Like to See Dominion in the Pan American Union.

Washington, May 29.—(By Canadian Press).—While a great deal is being said about the possibility of Canada's invitation to participate in the forthcoming conference of the Pan-American Union at Santiago, there are difficulties in the way of such an invitation, according to high authority here, which may preclude it. So far as the United States is concerned, there is no question it would be glad to see Canada represented at the conference, in fact, in the Pan-American Union itself.

The constitution of the organization, however, limits the membership to the republics of the New World. This has been true since the beginning of the organization. Under this constitution, the officials doubt their authority to extend invitations to countries other than republics.

Moreover, if Canada is concluded, there will arise the delicate question of what to do about some other countries, such as British Guiana, French Guiana and Dutch Guiana. Exactly where to stop if the policy of including republics only in the invitations is abandoned is difficult to say.

Another phase of the matter is that there is some delicacy felt by the Pan-American Union about inviting Canada unless it is done through Great Britain. And here comes up the question as to how the British government would view the association of one of its great dominions with an organization of republics.

In past years, it is learned, the question of inclusion of Canada in the Pan-American Union has been much discussed unofficially by influential men in the organization and outside of it. Officially, however, it never got anywhere for the reasons already indicated.

In view of the growing importance of Canadian trade with Latin America and with the United States, it has to be admitted that the reason for including Canada are stronger now than many years ago, when the union was formed. It would be entirely natural if the question

BAN RUBY LIPS FOR BEDFORD GIRLS

Painted Cheeks and Eyebrows Barred—Moderation With Powder Puff Required—Curl-paper Legislation.

Bedford, N. Y., May 29.—A set of seventeen new rules just issued by Superintendent Amos T. Baker of the State Reformatory for Women forbids the inmates to use the rouge pot, lip stick and eyebrow pencil; calls for moderation with the powder puff, and prescribes the length of skirts, the way to wear stockings and garters and how not to wear them, and imposes restrictions in gossip and the use of curl papers. The rules were approved by the board of management.

According to the girls, Rule 17 is the most devastating. It reads:—
"The practice of reddening the lips and cheeks, blackening the eyebrows and eyelashes and of using excessive quantities of powder or other white material on the face is prohibited."

Other rules are as follows:—
"A girl will be permitted to change the pattern of her dress in any way."
"Waist fronts are not to be rolled back and are always to be worn in a modest manner. Dress skirts are to be worn not more than twelve inches from the ground."

"Khaki suits with bloomers are to be worn only when inmates are engaged in specified rough work. They are not to be worn at school, during recreation time, at singing classes or at any time except as noted above."

"No girl is permitted to come to her meals with her hair in curl papers, or wearing a bouffant cap. Nor is any girl to leave her cottage with her hair in curl papers or wearing a bouffant cap."

"Girls must not wear their stockings rolled below their knees and must not display fancy or other garters. When khaki suits are worn they are to cover the knees, and stockings are always to be above the knees."

"At no time are girls to talk to or from cottage or school windows to other girls."

Other regulations are aimed at slackers and malingers, and attendance at Roman Catholic, Protestant or Jewish services is made compulsory. Violations of the new rules will result in loss of credit marks and lengthen the offender's term in the institution.

Superintendent Baker, when asked by a reporter why the young women in the reformatory go to the pains of dressing and beautifying themselves in Bedford when no men are allowed to see them, replied: "They always like, if they get the chance, to 'doll themselves up.'"

Put one on—the pain is gone immediately there was an explosion of gas which had escaped from a jet. Mrs. White's clothing caught fire and she ran into the hallway, screaming for help.

Policeman John Flaherty was passing the house when a shower of glass from three shattered windows of the apartment fell at his feet. As he ran upstairs three excited women met him. "It's an awful explosion," cried one, as the three brushed past him on their way to the street.

Flaherty found Mrs. White, her clothing aflame, on the second floor landing. Ripping up a length of stair carpeting he threw it round the woman. He then pulled off his coat and beat out the fire. At Bellevue Hospital it was found Mrs. White had been burned on the face, hands and body.

Most of the tenants on the four floors in the house fled to the street, where several hundred persons gathered.
