RECENT WEDDINGS

McCarthy-Comeau.
Miss Laura Comeau was united in marriage to J. E. McCarthy, formerly of this city, in Montreal on Oct. 29. The ceremony was performed in St. Paul's church, Outremont. Mr. McCarthy held a responsible position in the Atlantic Sugar Refineries here until recently, when he moved to Montreal, where he will make his home.

Holder-McCutcheon.
On Nov. 5, at the residence of Capt. and Mrs. E. P. Fullerton, Long Reach, Kings County, Albert R. Holder, Long Reach, was united in marriage to Miss Edith E. McCutcheon of New York city, by Rev. E. Ramsay. The wedding march was played by Miss Grace Clark of St. John. Mr. and Mrs. Holder left on a short trip to the upper provinces. They will reside at Long Reach.

RECENT DEATHS

Joseph McConnell.
Joseph McConnell passed away at the General Public Hospital yesterday afternoon, after a short illness, at the age of seventy-eight. He had been employed on the construction of a building in Wright street and on Monday afternoon his companions left the house, but did not see him. He was picked up at nine o'clock by Policeman Harry Donohue unconscious after a stroke of paralysis.
