Hove Tigers, last evening, by a score of 6 to 3. The batteries were, for the Beavers—F. Breen and A. Wasmaker; for the losers—Donovan and Heffernan.
The Young Shamrocks wish to chalenge the Young Beavers to a game of baseball on the Y. M. C. A. grounds this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. An answer is requested through the Times.
Springhill Wins.
Halifax, N. S., Sept. 5.—The baseball match at Springhill Mines today, between Springhill and Cape Breton, resulted in a win for Springhill by a score of 10 to 3. A game will be played at Stellarton tomorrow.
THE TURF.
Betty Blacklock Comes From Behind.
Harford, Sept. 5.—Betty Blacklock won from a field of five in the 210 class pacing event on the Grand Circuit card at Charter Oak Park this afternoon. It was her first win of the season and the Blacklock mare came from behind, taking the last two heats in a four heat race.
Four other races, including a double team trotting event made up the day's programme of racing. Alfred King and Dr. Killbuck, driven by Furbush won the team race.
Molly Knight was easily mistress of the three-year-old trotters in the Acorn Stake and Oscar Watts won the second division of the 200 trot.
The horses leave tonight for Syracuse.
Hot At the Wire.
Presque Isle, Me., Sept. 5.—Today's races at the Northern Maine Fair were good with hot finishes. In the named race Trinity Bell was distanced after winning two heats which left but one horse to start in the fifth heat. The judges changed drivers on Rob Waller, but it did not seem to improve his position. There will be three races Saturday.
RING.
Another Offer for Dempsey.
Reno, Nev., Sept. 5.—An offer of $50, 000 to Jack Dempsey to fight Willie Mechan twenty-five rounds in Reno some time after the first of the year, was made today by the Reno Athletic Club in a telegram to Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager. Members of the club say Mechan is willing to fight. The offer made to him was not given out.

BEDRIDDEN WITH RHEUMATISM

Felt That He Would Never Walk Again
"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought Relief.

MR. LORENZO LEDUC,
3 Ottawa St., Hull, P. Q.
"Fruit-a-tives" is certainly a wonder.
For a year, I suffered with rheumatism; being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine but without getting better; and thought I would never be able to walk again.
One day while lying in bed, I read about "Fruit-a-tives," the great fruit medicine; and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it.
The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the rheumatism left me.
I have every confidence in "Fruit-atives" and strongly recommend them to every sufferer from Rheumatism.

IS SEVERE ON
BAN JOHNSON
IN MAYS CASE

Council for New York Baseball Club Reviews Matter in New York Court

New York, Sept. 5.—That when Ban Johnson, president of the American League, ordered the suspension of Pitcher Carl Mays on July 31, for alleged breach of his contract with the Boston Americans, he acted "without information in the case," exercised "unauthorized power" and assumed "jurisdiction" in the league was the contention of counsel for the New York baseball club yesterday at the opening session of the hearing of the club's motion to make permanent the temporary injunction restraining Johnson from interfering with the Yankees' use of Mays.
Mays quit the Boston club during a game on July 18, it was asserted, because he was suffering mentally from domestic troubles and had been almost knocked out by a thrown ball. He later was found with his head between his hands, crying. It was added that Mays had never been disciplined and was held in high esteem throughout his entire baseball career. A short time prior to the 13th his home in Pennsylvania had been destroyed by fire with virtually no insurance on it and all the cherished souvenirs of his baseball victories had been wiped out.
Mr. Frazer, owner of the Boston club, had sympathized with the distressed pitcher over his family and financial difficulties, counsel said, and as other clubs had bid for him asked Mays which one he would prefer. The New York club was offered $75,000 for him and it was the New York club that Mays said he wanted to go. The transfer contract was then signed, and Mays was signed July 29. Counsel added that Johnson's notice of suspension came two days later.
"Johnson had become so insolent in his actions that he had given himself a constitution for himself, and he himself was the sole judge of his provisions and the sole arbitrator of them," declared Joseph F. Auerbach, attorney for the New York club, in his argument.
The hearing will be continued on Monday.

CAN JEALOUSY
CAUSE INSANITY?

Point Involved in Case of West Indian Who Murdered Wife and Child

St. Catharines, Ont., Sept. 6.—Frederick Fountain, of Niagara Falls, who is accused of killing his wife and their two little children one night last winter at their apartment in Niagara Falls will be tried at the coming assizes at Welland, provided that a commission decides he is in his right mind.
The point as to whether a person may be insane through jealousy, is likely to be involved, as acquaintances of Fountain, who is a West Indian, declare that he was insanely jealous of his white wife, a young English girl.
The act which it is believed prompted the murder was committed the night before, when Mrs. Fountain kissed a young man good-night, right before her husband's eyes. They had had a party in honor of Mrs. Fountain's birthday.
Early in the morning the occupants of the lower floor of the house heard a woman's scream. They called to Fountain but he said everything was all right. Next morning the door was broken down, and Mrs. Fountain and her little boy and girl were found dead on the bed with their throats cut. Fountain lay beside them with his throat cut also, but not ver-dily. He said he knew nothing of the killing of his wife and children, and he maintained the same ever since. He says he remembers nothing from the time he went to bed until he woke up in jail next morning.
Letters he wrote before or after killing his family were found in the room one to his mother in the West Indies, and the other to the man in whose house he the kissing incident, and said he had decided to make way with the whole fam-

It is believed he intended to commit final test came. It is understood the defence will make application for a commission to enquire into Fountain's sanity.

CARUSO ARRIVES
IN NEW YORK WITH HIS WIFE AND SON

Tells How Proletariat Confiscates
His Food—To Sing in Mexico

New York, Sept. 6.—Enrico Caruso stood on the bridge of the Giuseppe Verdi blowing his nose three times a minute as the ship moved up to Pier B, Jersey City. At his right stood his bob-bed-haired wife, and at his left was the young person getting his first glimpse of America, while America, represented by the ship news reporters, displayed a lively interest in him. He was Enrico Caruso, jr., fifteen years old, a serious young man who seems art as a personal caricature, and who is going to Harvard to study electrical engineering. He is obviously the son of his stepmother, and she of him.
The boy speaks English brokenly and not much—a tectum had who gravely inspects those who inspect him. He refused to be emotional even at first sight of the Woolworth Building across the river—although this was the first thing he wanted to see.
Caruso the elder selected a fresh handkerchief for his suffering nose before signifying that he was ready to be interviewed.
People Too Affectionate.
And then he told about all the wine and ham and cheese that he had given to the affectionate proletariat of Italy, and about all the chickens that his wife saved from that same proletariat.
"It was a mean trick," he said, "we were on our farm near Florence. A hundred and fifty of the neighbors came to the gates and cheered—a touching welcome home. I went down and talked to them and they told me with tears in their eyes that they had been without wine and cheese all through the war."
"So I opened the gates and bade them enter. They covered the lawn and I had
..... and cheese brought out to them and they feasted and we were all very happy. And they went away."

THIRD DOSE RELIEF!
FIFTH DOSE!
DIARRHOEA STOPPED

Diarrhoea does not need to persist for any length of time until the whole system is weakened and debilitated. No other disease so quickly undermines the strength and brings about a condition of prostration and very often total collapse.
Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is not only prompt and effectual in checking the diarrhoea, but at the same time acts as a stimulant, strengthens the heart and braces up the whole system, and one of its principal points is that it does not leave the bowels in a constipated condition.
Mr. W. H. Arnold, Fort Qu'Appelle, Sask., writes:—"A few years ago while out thrashing, I had a severe attack of diarrhoea. Nothing I took seemed to do me any good. I went down and talked to them and they told me with tears
out wine and cheese all through the war."
"So I opened the gates and bade them
enter. They covered the lawn and I had
..... and cheese brought out to them

of my finest hams and I know not how

He paused to blow his nose.
One Tragedy Averted.
"But my wife averted one tragedy.
The crowd was about to take all my chickens and wing their necks and cook them and eat them. The chickens were my wife's pets. Many of them she had named. She could not have their necks wrung. She pleaded with the multitude —and her Italian is very good. The people were moved. They released the chickens were saved."

In spite of this experience with temperamental sovietism, Caruso plans to sail on Sept. 15 for Mexico City. "I have contracts," he said, "and although I shall earn only $84,000 by singing, it would cost me perhaps $300,000 in damage suits if I should break my agreements. I am assured by President Carranza that there will be no trouble and I am planning to take the chance. Of course, if things get worse between now and the 15th I may not go. And if I do go I shall go alone. My wife and my son will remain in New York."
"I fear that if I were kidnapped by bandits my government would not spend $15,000 to ransom me as yours did for the aviators."

SUPERVISOR OF
ALL PLAYGROUNDS
TO BE DESIRED

At the monthly meeting of the Free Playgrounds Association, last evening, with the vice-president, Captain A. J.
Mulcahy, in the chair, all committee reports were favorable and the season's bills were passed. As teachers' reports were received only from the Allison, Aberdeen and Centennial grounds it was decided to hold them over until all reports were handed in. Three votes of thanks were unanimously passed and Mrs. W. C. Good, the secretary, was instructed to write those in whose favor they were made. They were as follows:
A. C. Skelton, for kindness in exchanging money for the association; John T. Mc-Intyre, for a contribution to the funds, and the management of the Empress Theatre for a special matinee given the children of the West Side playgrounds.
The work of the teachers during the season was commended and the season was considered to have been a very successful one. It was the opinion of the meeting that it would be advisable to have a general superior next year in order to make the work of the grounds more uniform. It was also thought that there should be more free play for the children than there had been this season.
