

UNRULY CONDUCT OF SUFFRAGETTES

RIOTS IN PRECINCTS OF WESTMINSTER

No. 10 Downing Street Bombed With Stones—29 Women Arrested.

London, July 1.—Contrasted with the recent orderly and impressive suffrage demonstrations, yesterday's demonstration was a comparative failure, and calculated to injure rather than advance the cause it was intended to serve. Nothing like the numbers of suffragettes anticipated appeared on the scene, and the affair seemed to lack a definite plan and organization. The Commons, in fact, remains behind at Caxton hall, reserving themselves, as they now explain, for another projected invasion of parliament to-morrow.

The police were in strong force, and for two or three hours the neighborhood of Westminster was the scene of riots and skirmishes, through the efforts of the suffragettes to break through the cordon and reach the lobby of the House of Commons.

Numerous ruses and disguises were employed for this purpose, but none succeeded, and in the end twenty-nine of the women were arrested, including two bold spirits who drove in a cab to Downing street, threw stones, and smashed the windows of the Premier's residence, and others who chartered boats on the Thames and tried to harangue the members of the House on the terrace through megaphones.

Mrs. Asquith and her daughter watched the scenes from the balcony of a hotel overlooking Parliament square. Mrs. Asquith had been watching events in the street, with her daughter and a governess, but the party were swept away by a sudden rush of the mob, and were somewhat roughly addressed and handled by a policeman, who supposed they were suffragists.

Mrs. Asquith then disclosed her identity, and the policeman escorted her to the hotel. She afterwards expressed her strong disapproval of the methods of the militant suffragists.

The Premier himself left parliament on foot and passed unrecognized, although there were enormous crowds around parliament. Scenes of the greatest disorder were enacted, but it is estimated that not more than five per cent. of those gathered in parliament square were women.

PRESENTATION TO REV. FATHER CAINE

Knights of Columbus Bid Farewell to Popular Visitor.

As a tribute to the Rev. Father Clement Caine, who, during his few months visit in the city, has made a host of friendly numbers of the local members of the Knights of Columbus made him a presentation at the Bishop's palace on Tuesday night. The presentation took the form of a substantial purse of gold.

Some twenty-five people were present, including a number of the local Roman Catholic clergy, all of whom had assembled to bid the reverend father farewell and bon voyage for his trip to England, where he has set out on his next tour of duty, Chicago, Baltimore (where he has relatives), and New York on the way. The presentation was made by G. J. Johnston and the accompanying members of the Victoria Council No. 1256, of the Knights of Columbus.

To Reverend Clement Caine:—The members of Victoria Council No. 1256, Knights of Columbus, feel that they cannot let the occasion of your departure on a visit to the Old Country pass without expressing their esteem and respect for you, and that from the first day of your arrival in our fair city, until this day of your departure, you have commanded the admiration not only of the Knights of Columbus, but of every member of the congregation, for the zealous and painstaking manner in which you have worked on all occasions when your talents and services have been called into requisition.

We especially, members of the Knights of Columbus, have benefited beyond measure by your sage advice, your ever-encouraging words, and your ever-present, never-failing K. C. smile. Our earnest hope and prayer is that you may have a safe and pleasant journey home, that you may find an enjoyable and profitable one, and that your absence may not be prolonged beyond the period at present contemplated.

Please, therefore, Reverend Father, accept the assurance of this small gathering of Knights assembled on behalf of the congregation of St. Andrew's cathedral, of the pleasure it gives them to have had you, and the tribute token of their good wishes, hoping that on your return you will find the same devoted admirers ready to welcome you back to this parish, and that which you could not find one more in need of a Father Caine.

The Reverend Father made an appropriate reply, dwelling in reminiscent fashion on the very pleasant relations which he had had with the local clergy and in fact all the people with whom he had been brought into contact. More especially he thanked the members of the Knights of Columbus for the hearty manner in which they had treated him, stating that during his visit, which was all too short, he had made many warm friends. He said his trip to the Old Country was one of business and that he intended to return to Victoria in four months' time.

ON LADYSMITH WATERFRONT.

Ladysmith, June 30.—These are busy times at the local wharves. The mines are working every day at full capacity, and still there are vessels anchored in the bay waiting their turn for a berth. Last week the following vessels coaled: Pilot, B. C. P., Stetson and scows, Eagle, Sea Lion, Selkirk, Venture, Tyes, Samson, Belfast, Beatrice, Princess May, Celtic, Canadian, Shamrock, Jessie Mack, Edith, Amur, Etta White, Burrard and Cesar.

The Greenwich pulled out with a full cargo of sack coal for Nome. Her place at the T wharf was taken by the Ryga, a new boat, which will carry 5,500 tons of sack coal.

DEATH IN PARIS RECALLS MONTREAL MYSTERY

Vancouver Man Thought to Have Been Victim of Foul Play.

Montreal, July 1.—News of the death of Albert Edward Lewis, of Vancouver, cabled from Paris, recalls a nine days wonder of a decade ago. Mr. Lewis was then a resident of Montreal, and was supposed to be wealthy, as he had married the daughter of Stanley Bagge, who owned a large and valuable property, mostly residential. Lewis was a real estate agent, and was trying to put through a deal in the suburb of Mile End, now Ville St. Louis, to which there was violent opposition.

One night he left home to keep an appointment in connection with the matter. He has not been seen since in Montreal. The letter making the appointment was left on his desk, and at the appointed place, a dark corner of the straggling square, which did not have so good a reputation then as now, there were signs of a terrific struggle.

One of Mr. Lewis' gloves and his cap were found nearby. Threatening letters were found in his home, and the police went to work on the foul play theory. But before long they began to look farther afield, and soon had no doubt that Lewis was alive and well.

Months after this it was discovered that Lewis was in Vancouver. He remained there for a year or two, afterwards returning to Winnipeg and taking up his residence in Vancouver finally. He is said to have owned a good deal of property in Vancouver.

MILLSTONE TRAGEDY.

Two Doukhobors Killed When Old-Fashioned Millstone Burst.

Beehavan, Sask., July 1.—A fatal accident occurred yesterday afternoon in the Doukhobor village of Beehavan, in which two Doukhobors were killed and three seriously injured by the bursting of an old-fashioned millstone. While in operation the great stone suddenly burst. The dead are said to belong to what is known as the Common by the villagers, and had families.

BANK CLEARINGS SHOW AN INCREASE

Six Months' Record for This Year Exceed Those of Last.

The statement of bank clearings in Victoria for the past six months shows an increase over the corresponding months of 1907 of $30,297—the figures for 1908 being $26,785,118, as opposed to $23,975,821 for 1907—the clearings for the different months being:

January	1908	1907
February	4,272,712	3,705,322
March	4,290,783	4,059,597
April	4,284,928	4,554,411
May	4,885,828	4,833,411
June	4,500,812	4,483,151

It will be noticed that there is a slight falling off for the month of June as compared with the clearings for the same month last year. Last month's figures, however, were much higher than those for June, 1907.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS HAD BIG DAY

CHILDREN AND FRIENDS ENJOYED THEMSELVES

Large Crowds Attended the Many Picnics Out of Town.

Perfect weather prevailed yesterday for holiday making, and large crowds took advantage of the excursions to get out into the country, the Sunday school picnic parties being especially well patronized.

Goldstream was the mecca for the First and St. Andrew's Presbyterian churches, and the four special trains took out about 500 people. Of course it was essentially young people's day, although the older folks enjoyed themselves in their own way quite as well.

Sports and games were held on the large lawn near the hotel, and there was an exciting baseball game between teams representing the two churches.

Rev. Dr. Campbell, in the absence of Rev. Leslie Clay, took charge of the party. Good Time at Esquimaht.

Esquimaht harbor was the picnic ground yesterday for the Congregational church, and a big programme of races was run off.

The following are the results of the sports: For primary class—Boys: 1, Frank Gray; 2, Sidney Hole; Girls: 1, Bella Gray; 2, Edith Babbage.

Miss Roberts' class—Boys: 1, Roy Emery; 2, Percy McLaren; 3, Arthur Hole; consolation, Victor Emery.

HORRIBLE DEATH.

Port Essington Fatality Was Due to Drink.

Prince Rupert, June 28.—Word reached here to-day of a fatal accident which occurred in Port Essington early on Monday morning. The first fatality amongst the many railroad laborers now engaged in building the Grand Trunk Pacific.

Otto Eckman, a Swedish employee of Contractor McQuade's section near Point Mowich, with several companions roved over to Port Essington on Sunday for a little recreation, and while there, suddenly, Eckman, who had been in bed at "Black Jack" MacDonald's hotel, got up early and walked toward the sidewalk towards the bluff. While attempting to turn down a short stairway he reeled and fell face downwards, his neck being tightly wedged between two short sticks driven into the ground in a forked position, while his feet remained on the sidewalk.

On account of his being unable to get up he was powerless to extricate himself and was slowly choked to death. He had been dead for two hours when the body was discovered, and at the inquest held by Coroner Wilson a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Little is known of the deceased, but he is said to have been a married man living in Seattle, as Port Essington possesses neither horse nor horses, the coffin was placed on a two-wheeled cart and covered with a tarpaulin, and, hauled by the provincial constable and his deputy, taken to the local burying ground, where it was interred.

JAPAN'S VICTORY IS CAUSE OF UNREST

Lord Curzon and Viscount Morley Tell of Troubles in India.

London, July 1.—An oratorical joust between Lord Curzon and Viscount Morley of Blackburn, secretary of state for India, occurred in the House of Lords last night on the subject of the recent unrest in India. This was Viscount Morley's maiden speech in that house.

Lord Curzon regarded the unrest as a chronic symptom of the condition of Asia as a whole, which has been fomented by the Japanese victory over Russia. "That was the triumph of Asia over Europe," he said, "and the reverberations of that conflict have spread like a thunder clap through the whispering galleries of the east."

Viscount Morley, in defending the government's policy, agreed with Lord Curzon that the trouble was largely due to the Japanese victory. The government has no reason, he continued, to doubt the Ameer's loyalty and friendship. Regarding the Indian agitation, it did not intend to adopt the remedy of "martial law and no damned nonsense," but "while the enforcing of the law and the preserving of order would not be determined by bombs and outrages, it would persevere in its policy in the direction of giving all grades of Indians 'some handling of their own affairs.'"

FRANCO-CANADIAN TREATY.

Ottawa, July 1.—The French Senate adjourned yesterday for a year without having taken action on the Franco-Canadian treaty.

HOME TEAM WON FROM BALLARD

LOCAL PLAYERS MADE A GOOD SHOWING

Wille's Wonders Were Again Victorious Against Famous Team.

The Wonders are still looking for a baseball aggregation that can beat them. Yesterday they had as their opponents nine young men who claim Ballard as their home, and the things they did to them, especially to the pitcher, were awful. When the Ballardites had finished their ninth innings the score stood 7 to 3 against them, so it was not necessary for the Wonders to go to bat. If they had done so it is hard to say what would have been the final tally, for the Wonders never attempt to show what they can do until the ninth. Anything they do before that is merely a preliminary contest.

Charlie Surplice decorated the slab for the Wonders and the visitors were able to connect with his slants five times. It did not get them very much, however, for it took three of the five to land the first run, while each of the others was followed by a single run only. Surplice was quite considerate with Clay, the heavy weight of the Americans. Clay did not look like a man who would be fond of running any farther than he could help so Surplice twice gave him first on balls. The others all looked as though they were in shape for a sprint and they had to take their chances on getting to first when they weren't struck out. Robertson took his old place behind the batsman and the position was well and ably filled.

A young man named Anderson was on the firing line for the men from the Sound. The Wonders hit him safely seven times. Winholt, who was here with the Imperators in the same position in the first game of the season, did the receiving.

The only other change in the Wonders from Saturday was that Rithet replaced Lang on third. After he had replaced Lang on third, Rithet with wine. Four out of the seven hits credited to the Wonders were made by him. They included one three-bagger, one two-bagger and two singles, not a bad afternoon's work for one man.

Walter Lorimer, who made a name for himself by the way that he watched the ball last Saturday, undertook the additional task of also keeping his eye on the bases yesterday and was awarded additional honor by the way he discharged the duties of the dual position. There was not a kick over any of his decisions.

The Wonders did their scoring in the first, third and fifth. They took three in the last and two in each of the others. The visitors were content to take their hits one at a time, tallying in the third, fifth and ninth, the first two scores being made by the weighty Clay. Surplice ended the day with six strikeouts to his credit, while Anderson retired four. There was lots of good fielding by both teams, all the batters being more or less successful in connecting with the ball, although on many occasions only to be caught out.

In the first innings an error by McQuade placed Fitzgerald on first, but he was later nailed at third by Rithet, while trying to steal from second. Then the Wonders came to bat. McConnell got first on Keppler's error and Plummer sacrificed him to second. Russ connected mildly with the leather but the ball beat him to first. Wattleit followed with a safe one and Rithet, who batted next, got another, allowing McConnell to score. Then Blaney stopped Grover at the breach and stood there long enough to allow Wattleit to get in on a pass ball. Then he struck out.

Clay was the first man up for the Ballardites in the third and made a safe. Anderson sacrificed the heavy man to second. Justus and Fitzgerald followed each with a safe hit. Robertson attempted, however to catch Justus at second, but this throw cost a run, for Clay landed on the home plate before the ball got back to the catcher. Surplice struck Helm out and McQuade picked up a grounder from Grover and landed it safely in Russ's mit.

Then the Wonders came to bat. McConnell leading. He got first on an error, and Plummer sacrificed him to second. Russ was hit by the pitcher and took first as a result. Grover caught Wattleit's pop and there were two men gone. Rithet came next with a three-bagger which scored both McConnell and Russ. Blaney landed the ball in Grover's vicinity and he got it home in time to cut Rithet off.

The feature of the fourth was a two base hit by Robertson, the first man up to bat for the Wonders. McQuade attempted a sacrifice and made first on it, but was later caught at second. Keppler saved the situation for his team, however, by catching Surplice's pop and getting to third with the ball before Robertson, who was expecting to go home, could get back.

Clay was the first man up in the fifth and brought with him a piece of timber flat on one side. Lorimer did not approve of the new kind of hitting stick and Clay took instead a regulation round one. For making the change without kick, Surplice gave him a base on balls. Then Anderson sacrificed his rly-poly friend to second. Justus followed with a grounder to McQuade, who took so long deciding whether to throw to first or to third, that Clay was safe on third and Justus on first. Robertson dropped the ball on Fitzgerald's third strike and threw to first with the result that Clay rolled in. Helm's drive to left was caught by Wattleit, and the side retired.

McConnell and Plummer were the first two men up for the Wonders in this inning, but both failed to reach first. Russ got there, however, owing to Grover not being able to pick up his grounder quickly enough. An overthrow by Grover gave him second. Then Wattleit walked. Rithet's single brought Russ in and advanced Wattleit to third. Winholt dropped the ball on Blaney's third strike and Blaney beat the spher to first, Wattleit crossing the plate while he was doing so. Robertson struck out.

There was no more scoring until the ninth, although it looked for a second or so as though the Wonders were going to do something in the eighth. Rithet faced the music first and landed a two bagger. Blaney's fly was caught by Anderson, but Robertson was hit by the ball and allowed to take first. Blaney ran for him from there. Blaney made a run for second and Winholt sent the ball to Helm. Rithet attempted to get home but the ball won out. McQuade struck out.

The ninth started by a nice two-bagger by Winholt. Keppler's foul was caught by Robertson and Huntosh was out at first. While this was being done Winholt scored. Clay was given first on balls and Anderson struck out and ended the game.
