CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR shoppers are invited to inspect the W. S. Loggie Company's stock of special goods for the holidays.

ROBERT SALMONS of the brig O. Blanchard, of Jersey, stranded at Foxton Island Nov. 19th, was sent to Halifax from Bathurst last Saturday.

DIED AT CHATELAINVILLE: Mr. Wm. Cashman, one of the best known residents of the Miramichi, died on Tuesday of last week at his home, Chateaufort.

MR. CREGAGHAN, as usual, amongst the first to attend Christmas buyers of the duty of coming early to select from his big stock, which is more extensive than his usual.

CAPT. BULLOCK, of the Nelson, expects to break the record this season by running the season longer than the December, which is said to be the latest date on which the boat has heretofore made a trip.

THE SHERMAN LEAKING.—The New Brunswick bark Sherman, Captain Aronson, bound from Chatham for Sharpness, has had some pretty rough weather and put into Vigo, Spain, with her hull damaged and vessel leaking.

TESTING MINE.—Mr. Archibald Rowan of the Inland Revenue department, St. John's, is in Chatham engaged in testing Electric Light meters. Mr. Rowan is an expert on St. John and one of the most efficient officers in the department to which he belongs.

ANOTHER SURVEY.—Mr. Tache of the Public Works Department, Ottawa, was in town last week taking measurements and photographs in connection with the public building and what there. He secured in connection with the old buildings on the waterfront corner.

ANOTHER VIEW OF IT.—The Chatham, N. B., Wood says that one of the witnesses lately said to the Lester commissioners that the other day "if I were the Minister I would fix the lumber business in ten minutes." Yes! and probably settle the lumber too.—[Transcript]

A SPECIAL TRAIN in charge of Con. Ferguson met with an accident near Bathurst, early on Monday morning. A broken wheel on a freight car caused four cars to leave the rails and a car of flour went over the dump. Very little damage was done and traffic was not materially interrupted.

MR. H. LE ROI SHAW, son of Auditor A. McN. Shaw of the Canada Eastern Railway, is filling the position of teller in the Bank of Nova Scotia here, vice Mr. Stephens, who will be absent for about three weeks. Mr. Shaw's exacting friends here are glad to see him in Chatham again.

BETWEEN THE CARDS.—Conduct of Brownell, of the night freight going west, was seriously injured about the body by being jammed between two cars while coupling at Gloucester Junction on Friday. He was brought to Bathurst and attended by Dr. Dunsmuir. He was sent home to Moncton by the Maritime express.

$300 DAMAGE.—In her bill suit against the "Money" paper, "Program," St. John, Mr. New, who has been somewhat successful recently before the local public there in connection with both church and domestic events, won an-odd considerable amount, was awarded $300 damages. The verdict is generally approved.

MONSIEUR G. R. H. Armstrong visited the camp of the Fur, Fish and Feather club at Bathurst last Thursday and succeeded in capturing a nice caribou. We refer thanks for a piece of steak. Messrs. Park Lawlor and Sergeant are to leave tomorrow for the same place. Chas. F. Riordan, of Boston returned from Bald Mountain with a very fine caribou head, it had 39 points.—Advocate.

ST. ANDREW'S.—Wednesday of last week being St. Andrew's day, fraternal greetings between many Scottish societies were in order. The Calcutta Society of Bathurst wired to the Highland Society here: "We'll say that a nabob's part, altho' we have no cash to spare him."

AT BATHURST.—On Monday evening of last week "Warwick Castle," Redbank, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Parks was the scene of a very pleasant and interesting gathering, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Parks, who celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage, assisted by their pastor, Rev. J. D. Murray, and a large gathering of their neighbors, amongst whom they are deservedly popular. There was a bountiful spread of good things, some speech-making, songs, and a very interesting and interesting program of a lot of useful articles as reminders of the "tin wedding," and a general interchange of kindly sentiments which made the party a very enjoyable one indeed.

FLEETING LEMON.—The marriage of Mr. Harry Feigler, son of the late Mrs. H. Feigler, and Miss Isabella Letson, daughter of the late Francis J. Letson, was celebrated at the residence of the bride's mother, Chatham, last evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Allen, former pastor of St. John's church and a relative of the bride, who came from Halifax to Chatham for the purpose. Mr. Frank Letson, brother of the bride, was groomsmen, and Miss Edith Feigler, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. It was a very pretty wedding crew. The young couple began their married life under the most pleasant and happy auspices. They started by the north-going express last night, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.
