E. H. & FLOOD, Manager.

At a large gathering of the members of the St. John Council Knights of Columbus last evening, the second degree was conferred upon four candidates. A visitor was E. P. McLaughlin, of Melrose, Mass., a knight of some ten years standing, who was given a hearty welcome to the council chamber and delivered a brief but interesting address. Mr. McLaughlin is a native of Rochester and has been visiting his uncle, John McLaughlin, at that place for some days. He will return to Melrose tomorrow.

At the thirty-fifth annual maritime convention of the Y. M. C. A. in Charlottetown, Sept. 14 to 17, among the prominent speakers will be C. T. Williams, president of the Montreal association; Rev. Dr. Warner, chairman of the international committee; F. L. Willis, secretary of the Worcester, Mass. association; and R. C. Morse, general secretary of the international committee, New York.

The store of Fox & Allen, general merchants, at Hawkeshaw, above Fredericton, was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. It is said the building and a large amount of stock were burned.

At a meeting of the sub-committee yesterday afternoon the plans for the new wharf on the west side were further considered. It was decided to refer the whole matter to the general committee of the council which will meet after the session of the water and sewerage board today.

Red Rose Tea Uniformity

A TEA that is good to-day and poor to-morrow is unreliable.

Have you ever noticed variations in the quality of the tea you use? One package good, the next bitter, herby, perhaps weak and insipid.

A lack of expert knowledge by the tasters and blenders of that tea produced that result. There was a failure at a vital point, an ignorance of combining qualities in teas, poor judgment in the blending of that maker's teas, a weakness which invariably gives just such results as your poor tea.

Every chest of Red Rose Tea is tested at the gardens, again by the Eastern Red Rose shippers, then at the Red Rose warehouse upon its arrival before blending; after that an experimental blend is tested, and the final or actual blend is also tested before being packed.

That is why that "rich fruity flavor" is always present in Red Rose Tea.

Why Red Rose Tea is always uniform, why

Red Rose Tea
is good Tea

RIGHT KIND OF REST.

The Medical World calls attention to the fact that complete rest is really harmful to some persons and that the greatest health factor is work, which will do what medicine cannot accomplish. "Congenial work with the mind and hands," it says, "is the best thing to do."

Complete rest should be prescribed only after such a course has been carefully studied out by the doctors, is one point which the writer dwells upon, and instances the bad effect upon some active business men who are compelled to drop everything and are not even allowed to read.

Herein lies one of the advantages of a vacation, for persons walk, row and do other things which those who do them regularly regard as work. Work, the man on vacation they count as rest and amusement. They are new lines of occupation, and the lesson of the vacation is to get the right kind of rest. Mere idleness may be best for some, while a temporary change of occupation is best for others.

WAITING.

An English paper tells a story of some children's theatricals. A party of children were giving a little drama of their own, in which courtships and weddings played a leading part in the plot. While the play was in progress one of the "grown-ups" went behind the scenes and found a very small girl sitting in the corner.

"Why are you left out?" he asked. "Aren't you playing, too?" "Oh, I've not left out," came the reply. "I've the baby waiting to be borned."

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 10--John Montgomery, the well known I. C. R. baggage master running between Moncton and Campbellton, is having hard luck. Recently he lost two children, a son and daughter, and now his eldest daughter is critically ill, with little hope of recovery, and Montgomery himself is at present ill and unable to work. He also recently lost by fire his house and barn, near St. John. Mr. Montgomery is very popular on the road, and has general sympathy.
