The International Commission to Reopen Proceedings at Washington.

The Atlantic Fisheries Question and How Newfoundland May Act in the Matter.

Principal Provisions of the Blaine-Bond Convention—Russian Paupers to Land at Halifax—Perrault Appointed Commissioner at Paris

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—J. S. Webster, a first-class clerk of the fisheries department, has been transferred to the service of the Ontario government.

The W. C. T. U. convention, today commenced the immigration of English barmoids by a Hamilton publication.

The prohibition majority is now down to 12,319, through the rejection of the New Brunswick duplicate votes and clerical errors.

A winter carnival is being talked of here. Mr. McDonald, O. C., has declined a commissionership to investigate the affairs of Dorchester penitentiary.

The contract for the winter service is still hung up, and the government is resisting the claims of the Allan and Dominion firms.

Major General Hutton inspected the forces at the corner of Shearbrooke and Metcalfe streets. About 1,200 men were in line and looked well.

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—The Canadian commissioners are off to Washington tomorrow, and within a few days will be engaged in the negotiations.

Mr. Bourassa, M. P., and Under Secretary Perrault have been placed on the list of those to be sent to the negotiations.

Mr. Perrault, whose actions at the Philadelphia exhibition, established the centre of attention, has been appointed commissioner at the Paris exhibition.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—The difficulty between the Allan and the government in regard to the winter service is chiefly over the day of departure from Liverpool.
