

PROVINCIAL NEWS

HOPEWELL HILL, Nov. 20.—The Baptist people of Lower Cape held a successful goose supper in the church there last evening. The proceeds, which amounted to $24, will go towards repainting the church.

The topsail schooner Glenrosa, for New York, while getting under weigh yesterday at the Cape, picked up an anchor with about 60 fathoms of chain attached.

WHITE'S COVE, Queens Co., Nov. 20.—Word of the death of Mrs. William Wheaton of Springfield, Kings Co., reached here on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton were formerly residents of this place. The deceased, who was about 58 years of age, was a member of the Church of England. Her maiden name was Miss Margaret A. Ferris.

John McAfee and Lee Knight are about to commence lumbering operations at Mauderville, Sunbury Co. Duncan Ferris, who took the contract to build the new bridge at Mill Cove, has the job about completed.

Capt. E. M. Young, who arrived at Jemseg with his schooner Ladysmith, with a cargo of coal, from Newcastle, on Saturday, has put his vessel into winter quarters.

Fenwick S. Taylor, who bought the Rootes property at Robertson's Point, from George Palmer of Deer Island, intends to put a crew of men to work this winter getting logs and scumming.

SUSSEX, Nov. 22.—The case of Geo. Dyrart, blacksmith, at Upper Corner, against five young men for breaking an ox sledge on Hallowe'en, came up before Stipendiary Magistrate Morrison today. H. H. Parlee appeared for the complainant and O. P. King for the accused. After some cross-examination the five men were found guilty and fined two dollars each, five dollars for breaking the ox sledge, and nine dollars costs. This was Mr. Parlee's first case since being sworn in as an attorney, and great credit is due him for the way he managed the case.

The Presbyterian supper took place last evening in their hall on Queen street and was very largely attended. About $100 were cleared.

MILLTOWN, Nov. 21.—Councillor Daniel Fitzsimmons was seized with a shock of paralysis at his home Sunday while preparing for church, and lies in a precarious condition. He is attended by Dr. Black.

The many friends of Miss Lu Lu Russell were shocked at the announcement of her death, which occurred at the home of her parents in St. Stephen. They extend their sympathies to father, mother and brother. Miss Russell was esteemed by all who knew her. She was 22 years old.

Father Doyle has arrived home from Bangor, where he was in attendance at the funeral of the Rev. M. C. O'Brien. The news was received this week of the death in California of John Daley, brother of Michael Daley, blacksmith, Milltown, and Mrs. James Eagan, St. Stephen.

The death of Mrs. Anora Kelly, widow of the late John Kelly, occurred at her home on the 18th. Her funeral took place this morning from the Catholic church, to the Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. James McCoy of Eastport arrived here yesterday, accompanied by her husband, Mr. McCoy is going to make a short visit among friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parks have moved into the house lately vacated by Moses Denon, Lewiston row.

Miss Mabel Coughlin left Monday morning for Fredericton, where she will spend the winter with her uncle's family.

Andy Heaton, who was injured in the football game, is able to be out again. He, however, gets around by the aid of a cane.

The Milltown and Calais football team will play in St. Stephen next Saturday afternoon, Nov. 23. A good game is expected.

Mayor Murchie drove through here Tuesday with a fine deer, which he shot at Burnt Hill.

Frank Pendleton's smiling face is again seen among his old associates about town.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. William McLean on the loss of their twins, aged three months.

Mrs. John Crowley, who was called here on account of the sickness of her mother and sister, has returned to her home at Bangor.

The King's Daughters' sociable, which was held at the home of Miss Myra Andrews Pleasant street, was largely attended and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

On the evening of Oct. 20th a very pleasant event occurred at the residence of Miss Belle Pleasant street, the occasion was the marriage of Miss Addie Belle of Milltown and David Clark of Union. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Osgood at half past eight. A large number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. After congratulations, a substantial collation was served in the dining room. There was a large number of useful and pretty gifts, including a large array of cut glass, silver, exquisite fancy dark and choice bric-a-brac.

Miss Atchison and Tillie Hall were married at St. Stephen yesterday.

CHATHAM, Nov. 22.—Mrs. R. A. Snowball (nee McIntyre) appeared out on Sunday last. The bride will reside at her beautiful new residence at the corner of Howard and King streets, which has just been finished and furnished.

Rev. J. H. Outhbert of Newcastle was in town this week renewing old acquaintances. Mrs. Outhbert and her son accompanied him. The reverend gentleman was located here about eleven years ago, but has since been stationed in Ontario, and lately in Michigan.

The Natural History Society has been very active in its work. The indefatigable president, Dr. Barker, is to deliver a series of lectures upon popular scientific subjects, while Dr. Cox is unwearied in his efforts to add to the museum, which has already attained solid proportions. The collection of minerals, which to deposit the collection are being added, and the premises of the society in the old post office building are becoming quite attractive.

County Inspector Menzies was in town on his last business this week, and again the hope has been expressed that he would have control of the work in Chatham. Two of our dealers, Allan Mann and "Skinny" Morris, are now laid up in lavender at the county boarding house in New Brunswick, the fare of which agrees so well with them that it is suggested "Skinny" will become "Fatty" before his return to his deserted ranch on Water street.

A representative gathering of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. Johnston, Wellington street, paid an informal visit at the home of this popular pair on Thursday evening. The occasion was the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding, and beside presenting them with an appropriate address, the lady was the recipient of a handsome silver tea set, and other articles of a similar character. Mr. Clyde Johnston, their oldest son, came up from Moncton and added to the genuine surprise by arriving at the family residence with the other "invaders." Music, dancing, games and other diversions made the hours pass pleasantly, and the moon was disappearing when the company separated.

The bachelors' ball which is to take place on the 28th, and for which the cards of invitation have already been issued, promises to be quite an imposing function, and a sad our fair friends are busy arranging the details of the affair. The company of slipper, frocks, flowers and furbelows, whilst the youths are dividing their attention between neckties, gloves and patent leathers, and it is hard to foretell who will be eligible for a position on the bachelors' committee next year.

NORTHSEX, Nov. 20.—Mrs. James Walsh, Millstream, has a fine baby, and her sister, Mrs. William McKay, has a bouncing boy, both born the same day.

Miss McColl and Miss Bates have returned from their trip to Boston and New York.

R. P. Whitney has purchased twenty head of young cattle, and intends fattening them for the market. He has also purchased a very fine cow.

Clifford Somers has been employed cutting lumber on the rear of his father's farm.

Miss Maggie Sherard died of consumption on the second of this month at her home, Allison settlement. Miss Sherard was a very estimable young lady and will be much missed by a large circle of friends. Her remains were interred in the Presbyterian graveyard at Red Bank, Rev. Mr. Murray officiating.

Miss Bray of Whitteville, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Maine, has returned home.

The Whitteville auxiliary of the Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society met on Saturday, 18th inst., in the Presbyterian church.

A few of the workers in the Sunday School Association intend holding a convention in Hubbard hall and the Presbyterian church, on Wednesday, Thanksgiving afternoon and evening respectively, when they expect full houses.

Miss Susan Austin of White's Cove, Queens Co., died November the 6th at the home of her sister, Mrs. Northrup Norton. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. John McColl and Mrs. Evered Goodfellow of this place. Miss Austin spent a few years with her sisters and made many friends here, who are sorry to hear of her death. Much sympathy is felt for her relatives in their bereavement.

SACKVILLE, N. B., Nov. 22.—R. L. Douglas, jeweller, received a telegram Wednesday night informing him of the serious illness of his little son William, at Perth Centre, Victoria county. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas left on the early train Thursday morning. A message has since been received stating that the child is now out of danger, and little daughters have arrived at the homes of John B. Atkinson of Frosty Hollow and Chas. A. D. Siddall of Sackville.

A good supper was held at the house of George A. Fawcett, Upper Sackville, last night. The affair was most successful from every point of view. The attendance was large and $80 was cleared for Methodist church purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dobson of Great Shemogue were taken by surprise a few nights ago, when upwards of fifty of their friends called upon them for the purpose of celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. An address was read by Woodford Purdy and short speeches were made by others, all expressive of good will. Presents of gold and an easy chair were given as tokens of remembrance.

After the regular prayer meeting at the Methodist church, last night, the annual business meeting for the purpose of electing members to the governing body, was held. The following were chosen: Burton E. Black, H. Eugene Bowser, Senator Wood, Hiram Coop and Amasa Dixon.

Prof. Richardson expects to move into his new store about a week. Captain and Mrs. Henry Calhoun of Albert Mines are visiting friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ayard of Great Shemogue are the guests of Harvey Copp. Albert J. Chapman of Dorchester was in town yesterday.

SACKVILLE, Nov. 23.—The organ recital of Prof. Geo. Wilson given in Beethoven hall last evening was well attended. The programme was well chosen and the playing was very heavy. Mendelssohn's Sonata in A Minor left nothing to be desired. The selection taxed the capacity of the organ to the limit. The recital was a command of the players. The finger technique in the last movement was especially fine. The most popular numbers were Beethoven's Sonata in A Minor, and the range and intellectual conception, and his brilliant execution of Bach's toccata in D minor. Prof. Wilson's playing was a revelation. His work throughout was of high musical and true musical feeling. He was a pianist in the true sense of the word, and his playing was a revelation. His work throughout was of high musical and true musical feeling. He was a pianist in the true sense of the word, and his playing was a revelation.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

Asthma.

You've tried almost everything for it, haven't you? And we presume you are about discouraged. Now what do you think of our idea of breathing-in the vapors of Creosole, bringing it right up to the diseased part? It looks reasonable, doesn't it? And it's successful, too.

When you inhale Vapo-Creosole your breathing becomes easy, the wheezing ceases, and you drop to sleep. For cough and whooping-cough it's a quick cure.

Vapo-Creosole is sold by druggists everywhere. The Vapo-Creosole, which would last a lifetime, and a bottle of Creosole complete, $1.50. Illustrated booklet sent free on request. Vapo-Creosole Co., 100 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

The fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. An address was read by Woodford Purdy and short speeches were made by others, all expressive of good will. Presents of gold and an easy chair were given as tokens of remembrance.

After the regular prayer meeting at the Methodist church, last night, the annual business meeting for the purpose of electing members to the governing body, was held. The following were chosen: Burton E. Black, H. Eugene Bowser, Senator Wood, Hiram Coop and Amasa Dixon.

Prof. Richardson expects to move into his new store about a week. Captain and Mrs. Henry Calhoun of Albert Mines are visiting friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ayard of Great Shemogue are the guests of Harvey Copp. Albert J. Chapman of Dorchester was in town yesterday.

SACKVILLE, Nov. 23.—The organ recital of Prof. Geo. Wilson given in Beethoven hall last evening was well attended. The programme was well chosen and the playing was very heavy. Mendelssohn's Sonata in A Minor left nothing to be desired. The selection taxed the capacity of the organ to the limit. The recital was a command of the players. The finger technique in the last movement was especially fine. The most popular numbers were Beethoven's Sonata in A Minor, and the range and intellectual conception, and his brilliant execution of Bach's toccata in D minor. Prof. Wilson's playing was a revelation. His work throughout was of high musical and true musical feeling. He was a pianist in the true sense of the word, and his playing was a revelation.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School of Oratory, Miss Rogers, sang a song of praise to the Lord.

The programme was varied by several vocal solos. The song "The Rose Tree" by Rogers of St. John, N. B., was particularly fine. The Emerson School