

The Committee on the subject of Union Societies reported the following Resolution :

REPORT.

The Committee appointed to take into consideration the subject of the Union Society, hereby Report :

That the Union Society is in their judgment well fitted to accomplish the objects for which it was instituted, namely, The support of Foreign and Domestic Missions, the promotion of Ministerial Education and the support of aged and infirm Ministers, by the united co-operation of Churches, Congregations, and Sabbath Schools, and would therefore earnestly recommend that the Ministers and Delegates composing this Association be requested to do every thing in their power to introduce the working of this institution into every Church, and every family composing the Baptist denomination.

All which is respectfully submitted,

A. F. SAWERS,

Chairman.

Report adopted.

The following Resolution was then adopted :

Resolved,—That the Ministers and Deacons of Churches of this Association be requested to use their best exertions to introduce the Union Society into their respective Churches and to render them practically efficient by eliciting the aid of the Sisters of the Church and adopting all such other means as may seem best adapted to further extend the influence of these Societies.

Adjourned to meet at half-past six o'clock.
