WINNIPEG OATS CLOSE.

July-551/2.

"We are going to win the pennant," says Pres. Comiskey of the White Sox. "The team is good enough. The fighting team does not quit after a setback." The old Roman maintains, however, that Eddie Collins should not be given credit for making all the improvements shown in the White Sox. "There are Roth and Felch, both greatball players, and the hitting of Fournier. Collins is a wonderful ball player—one of the greatest in the world—

ier. Collins is a wonderful ball player—one of the greatest in the world—and all the other boys are going well' is the way that "Commy" puts it.

Minot Crowell, the young Brown University star, signed by "Connie" Mack, never pitched a game of ball until two years ago. He begun playing as an outfielder and it was through an accident which interfered with his running that he finally landed in the box.
