

Social Notes of the Week

and Mrs. D. King Hazen, Mrs. Glimor Brown, Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Mrs. H. W. Harrison, Miss Clara Schofield, Miss Edith Schofield, Mrs. Leigh Harrison and others.

Mrs. W. H. Osborne, St. Stephen, is a guest at the Prince William Apartments this week.

The Misses Magee have decided to close their tea rooms, "Stoney Croft," at Quispamsis, on November 1st. This delightful tea room has previously been open during all the year and has been such a delightful spot in winter as well as summer. Many, especially residents of Rothesay, will regret that the Misses Magee feel they will close their tea rooms at the above date, and everyone who have had the pleasure of enjoying the cup that cheers at "Stoney Croft" tea rooms will rejoice when, in the spring, they will re-open.

A marriage of much social interest took place on Wednesday at Ottawa in St. Joseph Catholic church chapel when Miss Muriel, daughter of Mr. Justice and Mrs. F. A. Anglin, became the bride of Mr. Charles A. Gray, manager of the Royal Bank. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was travelling gown of navy blue with hat to match with brown fox fur. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, to Range Road. Mr. and Mrs. Gray left on a trip to New York, and upon their return will reside in the Carlton Apartments, Ottawa. Amongst those from out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McQuig of Montreal and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDonald of Toronto. Mr. Gray has many friends in this city who will extend their congratulations.

Mrs. A. E. Macaulay (nee Knox) will be at home for the first time since her marriage Tuesday afternoon and evening at her residence, 123 King street east.

Mrs. Clarence Nixon entertained at a delightful sewing party on Tuesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Louise Pond of St. John. Amongst the guests were Mrs. Stanley Elkin, Mrs. H. Fielding Rankine, Miss Addy, Miss Grace Estey, Mrs. Otto Nae, Mrs. Charles Peters, Mrs. Frank Godsoe, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. George Nixon, Mrs. George Murray and others.

Mrs. John Black, Fredericton, has been a guest in the city this week.

Mr. W. S. Fisher's many friends are welcoming him home again after a visit to England where he and Mrs. Fisher visited their son, Lieutenant Don Fisher, who had been wounded in France. Mrs. Fisher remained for a while longer in England.

Miss Beatrice Frink is visiting in Boston.

Mrs. Maurice Forbes White expects to leave next week for England to join her husband, Captain White, who is on a furlough from France.

Mrs. Gordon Sanction and little daughter Helen (Hampton), are spending a few days in the city guests of Mrs. Homer Forbes, Wellington Row.

Mrs. Henry Rankine, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Burnett, Montreal, returned home on Tuesday.

Miss Annie McGivern was hostess on Monday afternoon of very delightful drawing room tea in honor of her guest, Mrs. Gordon (San Antonio). Miss McGivern received her guests in a very becoming embroidered white gown. Mrs. Gordon who received with her hostess was beautifully gowned in pale blue silk with shadow lace. Mrs. W. K. McKean gowned in a pretty black and white taffeta with velvet hat, presided over the daintily appointed table and was assisted by Miss Rosamond McAvy and Miss Miriam Knowlton. Amongst the guests were Mrs. George McAvy, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. James H. Frink, Mrs. Knowlton, Mrs. W. O. Raymond, Mrs. Percy Rising and others.

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas B. Seely on October 15th at Montreal.

The representatives of the different chapters, Daughters of the Empire, left on Wednesday for Fredericton and attended the quarterly meeting of the executive of the Imperial Order of the Daughters held in that city. The ladies were most delightfully entertained while at the capital at luncheon at the Pine and the afternoon the visitors enjoyed an automobile drive over the city which at this time of the year is most beautiful and at the tea hour Mrs. O. S. Crockett entertained the delegates at a most enjoyable tea. The ladies from the different chapters represented were: Loyalist Chapter, Mrs. William A. Lockhart, Miss Gladys Hegon and Miss Edith Schofield; Brunswick Chapter, Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, Mrs. W. E. Earle and Mrs. FitzRandolph; De Monts Chapter, Mrs. A. W. Adams, Mrs. F. E. Sayre, Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, Miss Helen Sidney-Smith and Miss Laura Hazen; Valcartier Chapter, Miss Rosamond McAvy and Miss Miller; Royal Standard Chapter, Miss Ethel Jarvis. The ladies returned home on Wednesday night.

A wedding of much interest to the many friends of the bride with whom she is justly popular was quietly celebrated at Ottawa in St. George's Anglican church on Wednesday when Miss Gretchen de Bury, youngest daughter of the late Count Visart de Bury, of this city, was married to Mr. Frank Hamilton Skelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Charles Skelton, of Montreal. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Lucien de Bury, looked charming in a handsome gown of white duchesse satin trimmed with Chantilly lace, bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Buchanan was the maid of honor who wore pink crepe de chene, large black hat and carried a large shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Mr. Colin Williamson was best man. After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien de Bury at which only immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Skelton left that evening on a trip to Chicago followed by best wishes for a very happy future. The bride's traveling dress was a tailored navy blue broadcloth with black fox fur and small black and white hat. Very many elegant gifts were received by this popular young couple. Mrs. Daniel Mullin and little Miss Beryl Mullin were guests at the wedding.

A very novel evening's entertainment is to be given for Patriotic purposes at 204 Germain street next Friday evening, October 29th, called a "Halloween Party," at which ladies and gentlemen will wish to welcome a large admittance will be twenty-five cents which includes refreshments. The veritable with, delightful music, a picturesque candy table will all be there to interest and make a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. T. Escott Ryder left on Thursday night for Montreal where she will visit her husband's relatives.

Several ladies, members of St. John (Stone) church, are meeting on Tuesday evening at the residence of Miss Grace Estey to make and fill Christmas stockings which they will forward to the Red Cross. Mrs. Peter Gustav Kuhnring, now at the Dardanelles.

Trafalgar Day was quietly celebrated on Thursday as had been requested many availed themselves of giving towards the Red Cross. The splendid which had been asked by His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Wood. The silver tea given at the residence of Mrs. John E. Moore under the auspices of the Royal Ladies of the Chapter I. O. D. E. on that afternoon despite the unfavorable weather was largely attended and very successful, being a delightful social event. The house was beautifully decorated with flags, palms and flowers, while in a prominent position hung a fine picture of Lord Nelson. The guests when they entered saw a wonderful silver box in charge of Mrs. J. Walter Holly and Mrs. A. B. B. Allen. In a prominent position the large mahogany table with its pretty lace centre and floral decorations of white and pink chrysanthemums was presided over by Miss Kaye and Mrs. A. Peters, assisted by other members of the chapter. Mrs. F. J. Harding, Miss Travers, Miss Frances Travers, Miss Ethel Jarvis, Mrs. W. K. McKean, Mrs. F. S. White, Mrs. David B. Piddison, Mrs. Alexander Wilson, Mrs. F. C. MacNeil, Mrs. H. O. McInerney, Mrs. J. Pope Barnes, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. C. J. R. Kerr. During the afternoon Mr. Walter Piddison rendered "Canada" in his usual fine style. The splendid amount of seventy-two dollars was realized. At the Manor House in the evening a delightful bridge for patriotic purposes was given by DeMonts Chapter, I. O. D. E., with co-operation of the St. George's Society which was a great success socially as well as financially. The handsome rooms of the Manor House were tastefully decorated with pin needles, flowers, palms and other colors. The guests were received by Mrs. F. E. Sayre and Mrs. George K. McLeod, after which Mrs. A. W. Adams, the regent, in a clever brief speech introduced the speaker of the evening, Lieutenant-Colonel Sturdee. Mr. Skelton sang a patriotic song which was well received. Very handsome prizes were won by Mrs. F. E. Hamilton, Mrs. W. K. McKean, Mrs. D. King Hazen, Dr. A. H. Merrill, Mr. Knowles and Mr. Ketchum. Dr. Merrill generously putting his prize up at auction which brought a neat little sum. The many guests present thoroughly enjoyed the delightful evening and much praise was given to the members of the chapter for the completeness of every little detail carried out for the pleasure of the ladies and gentlemen who attended.

Mrs. Allison Allingham, Woodstock, is the guest of Mrs. T. A. Rankine, Princess street.

Dr. A. J. A. Hamilton, of Boston, Dr. Tremaine's Natural Hair Restorative used as directed is guaranteed to restore gray hair to natural color or money refunded. Positively not a dye and non-injurious. For sale by The Ross Drug Co., Limited, 100 King street, St. John. $1.00 (postpaid). Write Tremaine Supply Co., Dept. "J. G." Toronto.

A wedding of much interest to the many friends of the bride with whom she is justly popular was quietly celebrated at Ottawa in St. George's Anglican church on Wednesday when Miss Gretchen de Bury, youngest daughter of the late Count Visart de Bury, of this city, was married to Mr. Frank Hamilton Skelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Charles Skelton, of Montreal. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Lucien de Bury, looked charming in a handsome gown of white duchesse satin trimmed with Chantilly lace, bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Buchanan was the maid of honor who wore pink crepe de chene, large black hat and carried a large shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Mr. Colin Williamson was best man. After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien de Bury at which only immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Skelton left that evening on a trip to Chicago followed by best wishes for a very happy future. The bride's traveling dress was a tailored navy blue broadcloth with black fox fur and small black and white hat. Very many elegant gifts were received by this popular young couple. Mrs. Daniel Mullin and little Miss Beryl Mullin were guests at the wedding.

who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. MacNeill, Germains street, returned to his home on Monday.

Judge Forbes and Miss Homer left on Friday on a trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace King have closed their summer home "Eulalie" Millidgeville, and are now guests at the Clifton.

Miss Jessie A. Fraser is in the city a guest of Mrs. T. A. Rankine, Princess street.

Mr. Charles Han, Montreal, was a guest in the city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Oct. 22.—Mrs. M. H. Parlee was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Hartley S. Jones, at Apohaqui last week.

Miss Frances Fairweather and Miss Margaret Turnbull left last week on a pleasure trip to Boston and New York.

Captain T. Wm. Barnes spent the week-end at his home Railway avenue and returned to Sussex on Wednesday. Friends in Hampton of Mrs. Brunswick Hammond were sorry to hear this week of his recent serious accident while motoring in Boston with her son, Mr. William Hammond, whose car unfortunately collided with another, throwing the occupants out and breaking three of Mrs. Hammond's ribs besides a severe shaking up. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Harry Schofield and little son, and Mrs. Gordon Sanction and daughter, motored to St. John on Monday and spent the day with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Crosby, Miss Dorothy Purdy and the Misses McKean spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schofield.

Miss Irene Appleby is visiting in Boston, Mass. The many friends of Mr. John March offered him their congratulations on Tuesday, the occasion being his eighty-first birthday. Mr. March received a cablegram of good wishes for many more years of health from his sons, now attached to the 6th Mounted Rifles in England.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kimball, Miss Lily Kimball and Miss Gladys Heenan motored to St. John on Monday and spent the day with Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Sanction.

Mrs. Ralph March spent Tuesday in St. John, and on her return was accompanied by her young son Master Ralph March, who has been a patient in the Public Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ryder are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby girl at their home on Wednesday, October 20th.

WESTFIELD BEACH

Westfield Beach, Oct. 20.—Mrs. F. T. Bertram is visiting relatives in Boston for a week or more, while Rev. Mr. Bertram is working in other parts of the circuit. On Sunday next Rev. Mr. Bertram will preach in St. John and Rev. Hammond Johnson of Queen Square Methodist church, St. John, will preach here on Sunday evening.

Miss Hilda Belyea and Jack Belyea of St. John spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Belyea.

Mr. Gordon Crawford, of St. John, was also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Belyea over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bullock have closed their cottage here "Reka Dom" and with their family have returned to St. John.

The Women's Auxiliary were entertained this week at the home of Mrs. Edward Finley, Lehighside.

Miss Lois Fringle spent the week-end in St. John.

Mrs. Earle of Fairville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Machum.

Miss Sadie Lingley, R. N., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lingley.

Mrs. S. Corbett is spending a short time in St. John.

Mrs. Machum, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Machum, returned to St. John this morning.

On Saturday evening last the Nerepis Temperance Lodge were entertained by the lodge at Clarendon.

Mr. Willie Porter leaves tomorrow for Montreal where he will join the Railway Construction Corps mobilizing there. Mr. Porter before enlisting was in the employ of the C. P. R. and has a great many friends here who wish him the best of success. He will be much missed in the community. His gentlemen friends last week presented him with a handsome wrist watch.

Yesterday Mr. Fred MacKenzie, son of Mr. Moses MacKenzie of Nerepis left for Montreal where he will be attached to a reinforcement force to the Princess Pats. Mr. MacKenzie gave up an excellent position to join the colors. For some time he has been doing government work in connection with the brown tail moth survey, attending at intervals the Agricultural College at Truro, N. S. He was very popular with his young friends here, whose good wishes will follow him in his new career.

This evening the ladies of the Presbyterian church, assisted by their friends, served a delightful tea from 5 to 8 o'clock in the Agricultural Hall. The Misses Corbett sold home-made candy. The hall was tastefully decorated with flags and flowers were also used in abundance for decoration purposes. The proceeds are for church purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Machum, returned to St. John this morning.

On Saturday evening last the Nerepis Temperance Lodge were entertained by the lodge at Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Machum, returned to St. John this morning.

On Saturday evening last the Nerepis Temperance Lodge were entertained by the lodge at Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Machum, returned to St. John this morning.

On Saturday evening last the Nerepis Temperance Lodge were entertained by the lodge at Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Machum, returned to St. John this morning.

On Saturday evening last the Nerepis Temperance Lodge were entertained by the lodge at Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Machum, returned to St. John this morning.

Congratulations are being extended Mr. and Mrs. H. M. N. Stanbury on the arrival at their home on October 18th, of a little stranger—a son.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. D. Lewin had their infant christened on Sunday last in Centenary church by Rev. W. H. Barracough. Elizabeth was the name given the little daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Porter left on Wednesday on a short visit to Bear River, N. S., and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter.

Mrs. Eber Turnbull and little daughter are visiting at Fredericton, guests of Mrs. Ketchum.

Get the Natural Taste of the Wheat Kernel

Much of the tastiness and nicety of Bread, Rolls, Biscuits, Pastry and even stew dumplings depends on the quality and milling of the Flour which should be carefully selected and of the very highest grade.

LA TOUR FLOUR

which is chosen with special care from the choicest Manitoba Hard Wheat, is milled by a highly approved modern process which retains all the nutriment and natural flavor of the wheat, being equally adapted for Bread, Pastry, Pies and Puddings.

HAVE YOU TRIED IT YET?

Your Grocer Will Supply You

Balanced Baby Milk

Mother's milk is, of course, the natural food for baby, but this source of supply is not always possible, and when the little one must be fed by hand, cow's milk is the most easily accessible. Success with hand-fed babies lies in the selection of Fresh, Clean, Safe Milk containing the correct proportions of food properties to agree with the little stomachs and make for healthy, vigorous growth.

PRIMECREST FARM SPECIAL BABY MILK is the yield of specially chosen cows that are healthy, clean, contented, are tuberculin tested, scientifically fed and cared for, the milk of each being separately tested and kept by itself, so YOUR BABY can have milk of just the required strength.

PRIMECREST FARM SPECIAL BABY MILK which is Guaranteed Clean, Fresh and FREE FROM DISEASE, comes in Sterilized, Sealed Glass Jars, at

12c the Quart

Primecrest Farm SOUTH BAY

Phones—West 373—West 374—After 6 P. M., ST. JOHN

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Oct. 22.—M. G. Teed, of St. John spent Sunday in town.

Miss Isabel McLeod, professional nurse of New Glasgow, is attending Mrs. Margaret and Constance Teed, who are ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. David Coburn, of Londonderry, N. S., and sister Miss Geraldine Kirk, of St. John, spent the week-end in town, attending the funeral of Mrs. James Piercy.

The Daughters of the Empire met on Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Mr. Freda, pastor of the Baptist church, and Rev. B. A. Thomas, left last week for Truro, N. S., where they will attend the Baptist convention. During their absence, Rev. F. G. Macintosh, pastor of St. James Presbyterian church, officiated at the prison in the afternoon and in the Baptist church in the evening.

The County school institute which was to meet here this week, met in Moncton on account of the fever epidemic.

Private J. Walker, of the 55th Battalion, left for Valcartier, on Saturday evening.

W. A. K. McQueen and party are enjoying a motor trip through Nova Scotia.

Mr. Vernon Startard, who for the past year has been teller of the Royal Bank here, has been transferred to Sackville.

WEDDINGS.

Lisbon-Foley.

Corn Hill, N. B., Oct. 21.—A wedding of unusual interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Foley, Corn Hill, N. B., on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 20th, at three o'clock, when Rev. Milton Addison, Fetlicodiac, united in marriage their youngest daughter, Mildred Etta, to Harold Wm. Lisson, Sussex, N. B., under an arch of evergreen and white roses.

The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father as the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Mrs. A. D. Rouse.

The bride's trousseau was very elaborate, her wedding gown being of white silk crepe meteor and chiffon, with touches of silver. She wore a bridal veil with a wreath of lilies of the valley and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Louise M. Foley of Boston, who was gowned in chiffon over pink tulle and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mr. Frederick Long of Norton acted as best man.

After the ceremony the guests were directed to the artistically decorated dining room where the color scheme was carried out in yellow and white and partook of a course dinner, after which the young couple motored to their future home, Elm View Farm, Sussex.

The bride's travelling suit was sea and colored with cord with French picture hat of brown. Mrs. Lisson was one of Corn Hill's most popular young ladies, being active in social and church work.

The best wishes of her many friends will follow her. Numerous gifts were received. The groom's present to the bride was an upright piano.

After the ceremony the guests were directed to the artistically decorated dining room where the color scheme was carried out in yellow and white and partook of a course dinner, after which the young couple motored to their future home, Elm View Farm, Sussex.

The bride's travelling suit was sea and colored with cord with French picture hat of brown. Mrs. Lisson was one of Corn Hill's most popular young ladies, being active in social and church work.

The best wishes of her many friends will follow her. Numerous gifts were received. The groom's present to the bride was an upright piano.

After the ceremony the guests were directed to the artistically decorated dining room where the color scheme was carried out in yellow and white and partook of a course dinner, after which the young couple motored to their future home, Elm View Farm, Sussex.

The bride's travelling suit was sea and colored with cord with French picture hat of brown. Mrs. Lisson was one of Corn Hill's most popular young ladies, being active in social and church work.

The best wishes of her many friends will follow her. Numerous gifts were received. The groom's present to the bride was an upright piano.

After the ceremony the guests were directed to the artistically decorated dining room where the color scheme was carried out in yellow and white and partook of a course dinner, after which the young couple motored to their future home, Elm View Farm, Sussex.

The bride's travelling suit was sea and colored with cord with French picture hat of brown. Mrs. Lisson was one of Corn Hill's most popular young ladies, being active in social and church work.

The best wishes of her many friends will follow her. Numerous gifts were received. The groom's present to the bride was an upright piano.

After the ceremony the guests were directed to the artistically decorated dining room where the color scheme was carried out in yellow and white and partook of a course dinner, after which the young couple motored to their future home, Elm View Farm, Sussex.

The bride's travelling suit was sea and colored with cord with French picture hat of brown. Mrs. Lisson was one of Corn Hill's most popular young ladies, being active in social and church work.

MONCTON

Moncton, Oct. 20.—Mrs. G. T. Leighton held her post nuptial reception on Thursday and Friday afternoons of last week at her residence, St. George street. The house decorations were very pretty. In the drawing rooms yellow chrysanthemums were used, the dainty yellow shaded lights making a pretty effect. In the tea room pink was the prevailing color. Pink satin streamers were suspended from the chandelier to miniature baskets of tea roses at the four corners of the table. The centrepiece was a beautiful cut glass vase of American Beauty roses. Wearing a gown of white Brussels net, heavily braided, Mrs. Leighton received assisted by her mother, Mrs. M. F. Keith, who wore a pale blue satin gown with Battenburg trimmings. Mrs. W. Appleton ushered and wore a white voile gown with black and white