L.O.D.E. Chapters Present Pageant

Interesting Empire Day Programme Delighted Audience at the Imperial Monday.

On Monday afternoon all of the L. O. D. E. Chapters presented an elaborate Empire Day programme at the Imperial Theatre. The entertainment was a pageant, consisting of many interesting tableaux in which a large number of children and adults took part. Films for the programme were donated by the Famous Players Film Service.

The Programme

The Pageant opened with the showing of slides depicting the Red Cross as "The Greatest Mother in the World," and a reading on Red Cross work by Mrs. Boyle Travers, and the singing of God Save the King. Prologue—The Page—Miss A. Tait Series of Tableaux of British History and Spirit of History.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY.

The home of Mrs. Nellie Swain was the scene of a happy gathering last evening, when some forty friends gathered there and gave her a surprise party. The evening was spent in games and music. Bounteous refreshments of sandwiches, cake and ice cream were served. During the evening Mr. Lorne Belyea of Glenwood, in behalf of the company gathered, presented the hostess with a mantle clock, to which she replied in a few well chosen words.

Mrs. Swain is war widow of Captain B. P. Swain, 11th Batt. Royal Sussex Regiment. They purchased a farm here about eight years ago and when war broke out he answered the call of duty. In 1917 he was reported missing and nothing more has been heard of him. Mrs. Swain has but recently left the farm and moved into her new bungalow in the settlement.

Like a Locomotive Without any Steam

IS THE HOME WITHOUT DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Saskatchewan Woman in Recommending Dodd's Kidney Pills Says That "What They Have Done for Her They Will Do for Others."

Richdale, Alta. May 24—(Special)—"It seems to me that a home without Dodd's Kidney Pills is like a locomotive without steam." So says Mrs. G. H. Knapp, a highly-respected resident here.

"The kidneys need something to help them do their regular work," Mrs. Knapp goes on to explain. "Dodd's Kidney Pills will do all this. I rejoice to say that the good they have done me and my family they will do for others. Just give them a trial."

The work of the kidneys is to strain the impurities out of the blood. It is necessary work if the body is to be healthy. It is trying work, for the kidneys are constantly in contact with the seeds of disease.

Women who have kidney trouble should not think that their women just what Dodd's Kidney Pills have done for them.

MRS. SOLOMON SAYS:

By HELEN ROWLAND
 (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
 Being the Confessions of the Seventh-Hundredth Wife.

My daughter, upon the highway of Love, the foolish shall receive many jolts; but the wise damsel shall cherish My Proverbs and follow the SIGNS. And, for her, the Post Road to Matrimony shall be one long boulevard!

Behold, a man's love blossoms suddenly, with the first glance or the first kiss; but a woman's love feeds upon reflection. So that, by the time her romance hath flowered, his hath perished, and he goes to fade. But the foolish damsel writeth him a pink note, and calleth him upon the telephone, next morning!

Lo, as sweet as a nut sudsie, as perfect as the salad-dressing of a French chef, so is the combination of a moon, a pretty woman, a kiss and a cigarette. But, if ONE of these be lacking, the rest are without flavor. For, unto a man who yearneth for a SMOKE, a kiss is no substitute.

Joy cometh not when it is expected; and when the day and the hour have been set, and the fast prepared, a good time is lacking. But, when thou seekest not Romance, and hast no thought for Adventure, then shalt thou meet them at the first corner. For fate delighteth to play Santa Claus, and life's sweetest thrills are always surprises.

As antique as side-curbs, yet more fascinating than ear-puffs are modesty and discretion in pretty woman. And gentle manners are more becoming than pink tulle on the shoulder and powder on the nose. Yet the Flapper concealeth neither her emotions; and in her vampings, she is as subtle as a Boston terrier, and as reserved as a motor-horn.

Behold, the prin damsel saith, "No man shall kiss me!" Yet, if no man TRYETH to kiss her, she counteth the day LOST. For, it is not in being kissed, but in being thought kissable, that a woman's heart deligheth.

I charge thee, my Daughter, think not to make any man contented. For, the "Restless Sex" is not the vamping sex, but the Roving Sex, which is masculine.

Lo, the Bachelor saith, "All married men envy me, and I am called 'Lucky Devil!'" For, I roam witherover I list, and kiss whomever I please, and I know not the call of the dinner hour; nor the dread of the 'time-to-go-home.' Yet, for a permanent address, and three regular meals a day, and for SOMEONE to greet me at the door, would I give all my freedom and my single blessedness!

And the Married Man saith, "All single men envy me, and I am called 'happily mated.'" Yes, I am settled and well-fared and well cared for. Yet for an occasional 'evening off,' and for a holiday, with nobody at the other end of the telephone, would I sometimes give all that I possess!

And there is no peace IN them! Verily, verily, in his infancy, Man is a trouble to his mother; and in youth, he is a torment to many women; and in his manhood, he is a trial to his wife.

Yet, life without him, would be as a Flivver without gasoline, a dance without music—a sail without a breeze!

He maketh it "go."

The Wages of Sin.
 "Bredren!" exclaimed the preacher as he came across a portion of his flock engaged in pursuing the gods of chance. "Don't yo' all know it's wrong to shoot craps?"
 "Yes, pahson," admitted one par-lahner sadly, "an' b'lieve me, Ah's payin' fo' mah sins."

AMUSEMENTS

ITCHING RASH ALL OVER BODY

Burned Dreadfully. Lost Rest. Cuticura Heals.

"I had an itching rash on my back and shoulders which was very irritating and tiresome. It kept spreading all over my body and broke out into sore eruptions. They caused itching, and when I would rub or press them they burned dreadfully and I could not enjoy a night's rest. I had given up hope when I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and it was about four to six weeks before I was healed, after using eight cakes of Soap and three boxes of Ointment."
