Ottawa, Sept. 24—(Special)—Sir Charles Tupper returned to the city today. He is still prophesying success for the Conservatives, forgetful that in his doing so he is calling attention to the fact that he wanted never to be believed again if the Conservatives did not sweep the country in 1896.

Nanaimo, B. C., Sept. 24.—(Special)—The Liberal convention Saturday night nominated William Sloan, commonly known as King of Klondike, as an independent supporter of the Liberal government. With Sloan, independent labor and a strong probability of the Conservatives putting a man in the field at the eleventh hour, there are prospects for a stiff battle nere, The rancour between the parties is santense.

The government clam shell dredge is doing good work along the river, removing material from about the wharves and public landings. The dredge is at present being operated at the Maugerville wharf.
