VIII VIII FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

important functions having taken place within the last few days Receptions, bridge and dancing parties were the three forms of entertainments were the three forms of entertainments for which invitations had been issued. As was expected, the younger college set enjoyed themselves immensely, and if, because of the short vacations, social events crowded one upon another, it but served excitement and pleasure of the occasion. Next week, on Titesday, evening at half past eight o'clock in Keith's's assembly rooms, one of the most purposes ever given in the city will be held. The bridge whist in aid of the Free Dispensary deserves the fullest patronage of the public. The tickets, numbering three hundred, have nearly all been disposed of and the ladies in charge hope for a full attendance. The supper will be provided by the ladies'-committee, a sufficient guarantee that the confections will be of
