Physicians Cornered!

I SUPPOSE there is not in the whole of a physician's experience, anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy, and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal, suffering from that fearful disease,

RHEUMATISM!

Heretofore there has been a considerable diversity of opinion among medical men, as to the true character of this disease. Some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disease: but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that Rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood, by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will feel better satisfied, and rejoice more, than the conscientious physician, who has found out that a cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a gentleman of standing, and high respectability, and well known to the Canadian public, cannot fail to satisfy all that the

is a wonderful medical discovery.

MR. ISAACSON'S ENDORSATION.

MONTREAL, 21st March, 1874.

Messrs. DEVINS & BOLTON,

Dear Sirs, I, with pleasure, concede to the agent's wish that I give my endorsation to the immediate relief I experienced from a few doses of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure, having been a sufferer from the effects of Rheumatism, I am now, after taking two bottles of this medicine, entirely free from pain. You are at liberty to use this letter, if you deem it advisable to do so.

I am, sir, yours respectfully,

JOHN HELDER ISAACSON, N. P.

FURTHER PROOF.

I AM ANOTHER MAN!

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29, 1874.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have suffered for fifteen months with Chronic Rheumatism, and could not find any relief, after trying every medicine that I saw advertised to cure it, until I was told about the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have used three bottles of this valuable remedy, and now can say that I am another man to what I was. I would advise anybody suffering with this terrible disease to try it, and see if it does not do the same for them that it did for me.

Yours.

JAMES L. EAGLES, Indiantown.

BARNES' HOTEL,

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29 1873

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in stating that I put every confidence in your Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have suffered for the last two years with Rheumatic Pains, during which time I have had the advice of some of the most prominent medical men in the Province, and experienced no relief, until I tried the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have now taken three bottles, and I feel greatly improved, and now am confident of a permanent cure.

Yours truly,

JAMES O'BRIEN.

There is no medicine which so promptly relieves the depressed vital action, restores the general and local circulation, allays the pain, dissipates the congestion, prevents inflammation, and restores the healthy action as the

" Oh! I dread to cross the river,
With its current deep and strong;
Will my Father me deliver
From the struggle dark and long?"
Oh! fear not to cross the river,
The chill—the dark—the swiftly flowing river;
For its current bears thee ever
Nearer to the throne of God.

" Must I stem alone that river,
Helpless, breast its waters cold?
Oh! will Christ save this believer,
In His arms His servant hold?"
Christ will meet thee at the river,
Oh! fear thou not—oh! lean on Him, believe;
He will bear thee through thee river,
Safely to the blessed shore.

" Thank God! I fear no more the river,
For I know its waters chill,
Flowing gloomily forever,
Lave the foot of Zion's hill.
Oh, God! I bless Thee for the river,
The glorious, the heaven-flowing river,
Grant me! ever blessed Giver,
Soon to cleave its joyous wave.

Then I'll cross bright Heaven's river,
Leaning on my Saviour's hand;
Then my soul with bliss shall quiver,
As I touch its shining strand.
Soon I'll meet you at the river,
Oh, weeping ones! we'll gather at the river,
Then we'll praise the Lamb forever,
As we worship at His throne."

Spiritualism.

Spiritualism for the most part is a shower from the realm of intelligences and uncultured affections. It is rapidly irrigating and fertilizing everything that has root and the seed-power to grow. It is starting up the half dead trees of Sectarianism, causing the most miserable weeds to grow rapid and rank, and, of course, attracting very general attention to religious feelings and super-terrence existences.

As an effect of this Spiritualistic rain, we may look for an immense harvest of both wheat and tares—the grandest growth in great principles and ideas on the one hand, and a fearful crop of cruelties and disorganizing superstitions on the other. There will be seen floating on the flood many of our most sacred institutions. Old wagon ruts, long forgotten cow-tracks, every little hole and corner in the old highways, will be filled to the brim with the rain. We will hardly know the difference between the true springs and the flowing mud-pools visible on every side. Many noble minds may stumble as they undertake to ford the new streams which will come up to their very door sills, if not into their sacred and established habitations. Perhaps lives may be lost; perhaps homes may be broken up; perhaps fortunes may be sacrificed; for who ever heard of a great flood, a storm of much power, or an earthquake, that did not do one, or two, or all of these deplorable things? Spiritualism is, indeed, all and everything which its worst enemies or best friends ever said of it;—a great rain from heaven, a storm of violence, a power unto salvation, a destroyer and a builder too, each and all, and everything good, bad and indifferent; for which every one, nevertheless, should be thankful, as eventually all will be when the evil subsides, when the severe rain is over, and the clouds dispersed—when even the blind will see with new eyes, the lame walk, and the mourners of the world be made to rejoice with joy unspeakable.

St. John, N. B., Feb. 2.

NOTES AND NEWS.

It is stated that in case of a vacancy in the Papal See, Prince Bismarck would use all his influence to have Cardinal Hohenlohe elected.

The Town Council of Liverpool has accepted an offer from the Rev. J. Miles Moss, of Waterloo, of £1000 as the nucleus of a fund for the suppression of street outrages.

The leading Nonconformists of Glasgow have held a private meeting, and resolved to found a national association to promote the disendowment and disestablishment of the State Church of Scotland.

"No, sir," angrily exclaimed Mr. Scott, of the St. Joe Commercial, as he waved the agent towards the half-open door. "No, sir; I want none of your revised statutes. Give me the old Grecian and Roman antiquaries, lifelike and human—a crude Venus or a Cupid, and sich."

Complexion blear as polished wax;
Her tongue as sharp as carpet tacks;
Her eyes a dark bewitching blue;
Her voice is pure and high toned too;
Her neck's like Annie Laurie's wan;
Her words you'd love to dwell upon;
Her teeth so pearly, clear and white,
You almost wish your ear she'd bite.

A Berlin correspondent says that the first accurate account of the strength of the Russian army under the new system has just been published. The entire force, including Cossacks, Militia, &c., would amount to almost three million men, but the actual fighting power may be set down at 1,800,000, or about a third stronger than formerly.

A London correspondent says that signs of political activity are beginning to manifest themselves in all directions. The most probable report as to the legislation of next session is, he says, that which predicts an essay at a local taxation bill, and one to improve the condition of the tenant farmers. Much will not be attempted, however, beyond what may be broadly called administrative reforms.

The Pope has received an Irish deputation, headed by the Rector of the Irish College. The address which was presented to his Holiness stated that there were everywhere machinations against the Pope, and set forth expressions of Ireland's devoted affection to the Church and the Pope. His Holiness briefly addressed them, concluding by giving them his blessing. A deputation of French priests also had an audience of the Pope, and presented him with 30 magnificently bound volumes of addresses, praying that the Church may be consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The intelligence that an Ottawa Frenchman named Villeneuve had come to his death in a most horrible manner reached us this morning. It seems that he was sent up in charge of shanty supplies to the Opeongo, and on his way thither got beastly drunk, he having stolen a bottle of grog from a public house. He became semi-comatose, and not being able to keep his seat in the sleigh, tumbled off, and getting between the whiffletrees, the runners of the sleigh passed over his neck, nearly severing his head from his body. The horses went on their way, and next morning the body was found by another teamster, frozen stiff.

A NEW THING AND A GOOD THING

THE invention of the paper collar was of positive benefit to the world, furnishing as it did, a neat, clean, and most economical article of apparel. But it never did answer all the purposes for which it was designed, owing to the frail nature of the material. The problem has been to make a cloth collar as cheap as paper that would last longer and could be made always fresh and bright. The new "44" collar, now upon the market, fills these requirements perfectly. It is made entirely of cloth, three thicknesses being used; it so closely resembles the finest linen that it might be sold anywhere for linen; and, no matter how much it may be soiled, it can be cleaned and made as bright as ever by the application of a damp sponge or cloth.
