Marriage of fir. Ely E. Weare and fliss Mary E. Fellows Tuesday.

The Affair One of Elegance in Vivid Contrast to These Regions.

A social event of importance to Dawson's most exclusive circles transpired on Tuesday evening, when Mr. Ely E. Weare, acting president of the North American Transportation t Trading Co., was united in wedlock to Miss Mary E. Fellows. The event was characterized by an elegance of appointment which would public. have made it brilliant under more favored conattions than are possible in this far off councountry, and while it was in no wise ostentations, the event will be recorded both for its of the company present, as the swellest of the . Derating trams over the present roadway. kind which ever transpired here. The marriage took place at 8:30 o'clock at the pretty ottage of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hammel, which was beautifully and ingeniously decorated in honor of the event, green and white, the colors of the N. A. T. & T. Co., predominating. The Union Jack and Dominion ensign were draped from the folding doors between the parlors, while a beautiful esmony, fashioned of a light white material caught here and there with green ribbon and surmounted by the Stars and Stripes, inshioned into the form of a butterfly how at the center, occupied one corner of the front parlor. Beneath this was spread a rich white for my upon which the bridal pair stood, their backs to the company of friends, during the service. The beautiful Church of England rite was used, the Res. Bowen officiating, and the strains of Lobengrin's famous wedding march, played softly on the piano, formed a most harmonious accompaniment to the impressive words. The bride looked exceedingly attractive in a costume of rich silk in the latest gray colorings, with no ornaments

At the conclusion of the service, the friends pair and at 9:30 o'clock all repaired to the his lost canine. Boyden refused to deliver up ing menu:

The repast/was the most pretentions which erer graced a festal board in the Yukon basin, and Manager Healy, as well as his chef, Mr. Joe Finch, were the recipients of unbounded praise for the success attending their efforts. With the introduction of champagne, Colonel Ward proposed a series of toasts in his happy style, which were all appropriately responded to and the health of the bride and groom, together with that of his excellency, Commissioner Ogilvie and other guests, were drank. At intervals, too, music was rendered by a company of musicians seated in the private dining-room of the onse and a number of songs It was 1:30 o'clock when the company finally which were tried by jury. and reluctantly arose to take their leave, all long life and happiness.

A Suggestion to Mr. Ogilvie.

There is great rejoicing up the creeks this week over the success of the Nuccer in the suit of the NUGGET vs. the tramless tramway. For some reason a great many of our miner friends had conceived the idea that in the Yukon Territory it was useless to struggle against wrong and oppression a waste of time and moriey, as the people would not be ALL KINDS OF DIMENSION LUMBER. considered in the matter. The public rejoieing up the creeks is largely the result of managed hope, a feeling that after all the Office of Mill

Ordered to Give Up the Mail.

"United States Consul McGook is reported to have taken strong measures to end this farce of pretended mail carrying by P. C. Richardson and his myrmidens. Upon being notified by the police that the contractor was refusing to furn over to the police the enail now in his possession, Col. McCook notified him to either bring in that mail at once with no more delay or to turn it over to the police on demand. At the same time fire consult is reported to have notified the home government of the positive hindrance to the carrying of the mail which this P. C. Richardson has minute. proved to be, and also that the people of this section whose mail he has so outrageously delayed are becoming much exercised thereby. If Mr. Richardson appears in person upon the streets of Dawson before his pertidy is forgotten be would but he showing very ordinary prudence in securing a bodyguard of police.

The Dog Made a Round Trip.

The case of Chas. G. Feihl vs. W M. Royden, except a migget brooch at the threat and the was a unique contest for a dog. During the N. A. T. & E.
