An Act to repeal the Statute 16 Victoria, chap 80, and to make better provision for preventing infractions of the Laws against Usury.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Act hereinaf er mentioned, Preamble. and to make better provision for preventing infractions of the Laws against Usury; Therefore Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows:

I. The Act passed in the sixteenth year of Her Majesty's Reign, and /ct 16 V. c. 80 5 intituled, "An Act to modify the Usury Luws," shall be and is hereby repeated. repealed.

II. If any person lending money to another, shall require him to pur- Penalty for chase or take, privately or openly, any property, article or thing whatever, the value or price whereof is to be considered as part of the sum anything and 10 lent, or deducted therefrom by the lender, or if such lender shall in reckoning the any way whatever induce the borrower to take a less sum than that menof the money tioned in the bond, obligation, note or security liven by the borrower lent. in consideration of such loan, then such lender shill only be entitled to recover the sum really lent with interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per 15 annum, and shall also forfeit to the borrower a sum equal to one-fifth part of the sum for which such bond, obligation, note or security shall have been given, and if he shall have received more than is allowed by this Act, the borrower may recover it back from him; and such forfeiture and such sum as last aforesaid, may be recovered as a debt due 20 by such lender to such borrower.

III. So much of any law relating to Usury as may be inconsistent with Inconsistent laws repealed. this Act, is hereby repealed.