

and from their cells and to and from their meals, and shall perform their share with the Keepers and Guards, as the Rules and Regulations may direct, of the routine duty of the Prison, and aid in carrying out the discipline thereof.

5 XXIV. And be it enacted, That for every fifty convicts, or for every gang containing a smaller number than fifty convicts employed under any contract in the manufacturing of articles for any party or parties, there shall be an Officer to be known as a "Keeper" who shall have
10 the charge and management of such gang, so far as regards the maintenance of discipline, and the due observance of the rules and regulations, and the proper application of the convicts to the work in which they are employed; and it shall be the duty of such Keeper to see that silence
15 is maintained and that a sufficient amount of work is done and done well by each convict, and that a proper account of the same is kept; and it shall be the duty of the said Keepers to see that the Rules of the Prison are strictly observed by the Contractors, their Agents and Foreman,
20 and to report all infractions of the same to the Warden. And it shall be the duty of the said Keepers to see that the work, if any, done for the Penitentiary under contract by the convicts in their charge, shall be good and sufficient work according to the contract; and it shall be the duty
25 of the said Keepers to remain with their gangs at all times during work hours, unless specially relieved by the Warden or Deputy Warden; and they shall aid in conducting the convicts to and from their cells, and to and from their meals, and shall perform their share with the Overseers
30 and Guards, as the Rules and Regulations may direct, of the routine duty of the Prison, and aid in carrying out the discipline thereof.

Keepers :
Their duties.

XXV. And be it enacted, That there shall be in the Penitentiary, such number of Guards, not exceeding thirty,
35 as the Inspectors may from time to time find needful and direct to be employed; and the said Guards shall be employed in the safe keeping of the prisoners, and in the maintenance of order and discipline.

Guards: Their duties.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Officers of the 40 Penitentiary shall receive the undermentioned sums annually, or in proportion thereof for such portion of any year as they shall be so employed, in full compensation for their services in their respective Offices, that is to say:—

Salaries of Inspectors and Officers.

The Inspectors £ each.