

For making or repairing the said intended Railroad or the works incidental or relative thereto, or which may hinder, prevent or obstruct the making, using or completing, extending or maintaining the same respectively, according 5 to the intent and purpose of this Act; and to make, build, erect and set up, in or upon the said intended Railroad, or upon their lands adjoining or near the same respectively, such and so many houses, warehouses, toll-houses, watch-houses, telegraphs or other signals, weighing beams,
 10 cranes, fire engines, steam engines, or other engines, either stationary or locomotive, inclined planes, machines and other works, ways, roads and conveniencies, as and when the said Company of Proprietors shall think requisite and convenient for the purposes of the said Railroad
 15 and works; and also from time to time to alter, repair, divert, widen, enlarge and extend the same, and also to make, maintain, repair, and alter any fences or passages over, under or through the said intended Railroad, and to turn and change the course of any river not being a 20 navigable river, or of any brooks, streams or other waters, the courses of which the said Company may find it necessary to turn and change; and to construct, erect, make and do all other matters and things which they shall think convenient and necessary for the making, effecting,
 25 extending, preserving, improving, completing and easy using of the said intended Railroad and other works, in pursuance of and according to the true intent and meaning of this Act; they the said Company, doing as little 30 damage as may be in the execution of the several powers to them hereby granted, and making satisfaction in manner hereinafter mentioned to the owners or proprietors of, or the persons interested in the lands, tenements or hereditaments, water, water courses, brooks or rivers respectively, which shall be taken, used, removed, prejudiced,
 35 or of which the course shall be altered, or for all damages to be by them sustained in or by the execution of all or any of the powers given by this Act; and this Act shall be sufficient to indemnify the said Company and their deputies, agents, officers, workmen and servants,
 40 and all other persons whatsoever for what they or any of them, shall do by virtue of the powers hereby granted, subject nevertheless to such provisions and restrictions as are hereinafter mentioned.

Satisfaction to be made for damages.

III. And be it enacted, That where the said Railroad 45 shall cross any public highway, the ledge or flange of such Railway for the purpose of guiding the wheels of the carriages, shall not rise above the level of such road more than one inch, nor shall the rail or rails of the said Road be placed below the level of such road more than one inch; and that where any bridge shall be erected or made 50 by the said Company for the purpose of carrying the said Railroad over or across any public highway, the space of the arch of any such bridge shall be formed, and shall at Precautions where the Road shall cross a highway.