

able for each additional ten hundred weight as for one horse, and any fraction of ten hundred weight being reckoned as ten hundred weight.

- 5 VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no person, horse or carriage, employed in conveying a mail or letters under the authority of Her Majesty's Post Office, nor the horses or carriages, laden or unladen, and drivers, attending officers and soldiers of Her Majesty's Forces, or of the Militia whilst upon their march or on duty, nor the said officers and soldiers, nor any of them, nor carriages and drivers or guards, sent with prisoners of any description, as well going as coming, provided they are not otherwise loaded, shall be chargeable with any Toll or Rate whatsoever: Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Alexander Maurice Delisle, Benjamin Henri Lemoine, and Jean Baptiste Debien, their heirs, executors, curators or assigns, to diminish the said Tolls, or any of them, and afterwards if they shall see fit, again to augment the same, or any of them, so as not to exceed in any case the rates hereinbefore authorized to be taken: Provided also, that the said Alexander Maurice Delisle, Benjamin Henri Lemoine, and Jean Baptiste Debien, their heirs, curators or assigns, shall affix or cause to be affixed, in some conspicuous place at or near the said Toll-gate, a Table of the Rates payable for passing over the said Bridge; and so often as such rates may be diminished or augmented, they shall cause such alteration to be affixed in manner aforesaid.

Exemption in certain cases.

A. M. Delisle, &c., may reduce and afterwards advance the tolls.

Table of rates to be fixed in a conspicuous place at the Toll gate.

- VIII. And be it enacted, That the said Tolls shall be and the same are hereby vested in the said Alexander Maurice Delisle, Benjamin Henri Lemoine and Jean Baptiste Debien, their heirs and assigns for ever: Provided, that if Her Majesty shall, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, after the Tolls vested in A. M. Delisle, &c., unless Her Majesty, at the end of fifty years shall assume the possession of the bridge, &c., then the
