

The Columbian Conservatory of Music, Toronto

Musical Director

- - PETER C. KENNEDY

Directorate: LT.-COL. A. E. GOODERHAM, MR. E. R. WOOD, MR. A. F. WEBSTER

READERS of this week's "Courier" must be convinced of the great musical activity throughout Canada at the present time. To foster this and secure good results it is imperative that students should have tuition, by example and precept, of the highest type. Realizing how great the possibilities are, accompanied with the insistent demand for real instruction, the Columbian Conservatory has engaged European artists of exceptional ability who will teach exclusively for the Conservatory.

Recent notable additions to the staff include:

Signor Otto Morando,
Francis Fischer Powers,
Luigi Von Kunits,
Walter Kerschbaum,

Great Italian Operatic Tenor.
Eminent New York Baritone.
Austrian Violin Virtuoso.
Brilliant Pianist (pupil of Busoni and Rosenthal).

The Orchestral, Operatic and Chamber Music Classes supply the students with a practical experience which is invaluable.

Year Book mailed on application.

NEW CONSERVATORY BUILDING

Spadina Road, near Bloor
Phone Coll. 1343

PARKDALE BRANCH

Formerly the Metropolitan School of Music
1494-6 Queen St. W., Phone P. 95

F. H. TORRINGTON

Director

Mus. Doc. (Tor.)

Toronto College of Music, Limited

(In Aff. with the University of Toronto.)

Teacher of Piano, Organ and Singing

SEND FOR CIRCULAR

12-14 Pembroke Street :: :: Toronto

PHONE MAIN 1062

The Hambourg Conservatory of Music

Director: PROF. MICHAEL HAMBOURG

Teacher of the eminent Pianist, Mark Hambourg.

100 GLOUCESTER STREET :: :: TORONTO

Associates the celebrated Virtuoso Jan and Boris Hambourg. Complete Musical Education.

Children's classes a specialty under the personal supervision of Professor Michael Hambourg.

Faculty—PIANO—Professor Michael Hambourg, Grace Smith, Ernest J. Farmer, Ernest D. Gray, Mary Campbell, Madge Williamson.

VIOLIN—Jan Hambourg, Z. Caplan, Broadus Farmer.

CELLO—Boris Hambourg, Joseph Sheard.

VOCAL—Madame Kathryn Innes-Taylor, David Ross, George Dixon, Edith Fitch, Laura Homuth, Stella Mackenzie.

HARMONY AND COMPOSITION—Mr. Ernest J. Farmer, Ernest D. Gray.

Dancing in all its branches—Marguerite Bertram.

Modern languages taught.

DRAMATIC ART—Aileen Barr.

FENCING AND PHYSICAL CULTURE—Sergeant McMahon.

The Hambourg Concert Society in affiliation with the Hambourg Conservatory of Music, under the patronage of Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Princess Patricia and His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Gibson.

For Particulars Apply to the Secretary.

Phone North 2341.

Casavant Freres Church Organ Builders

St. Hyacinthe, - - Quebec

Established in 1879, we have built over five hundred Organs for Canada and United States. Among the most important are those of:

St. Andrew's Church, Toronto
Notre-Dame Church, Montreal
Jewish Temple Mount Sinai, Chicago
University Convocation Hall, Toronto
All Saints' Cathedral, Halifax
Westminster Church, Winnipeg
Metropolitan Church, Victoria
Jesuits Church, New York
R. C. Cathedral, Kingston, Jamaica
Baptist Church, Syracuse, N.Y.
St. Paul's Anglican (now building),
Toronto

Casavant Freres

St. Hyacinthe, Quebec