

down that letter, but they are not to blame; Mr Ironside recommended them to send it down.

Father.

This is all that at present we have got to say - all that you have now written came out of the mouth of Mr Ironside - some of the people below wished to know who caused that letter to be sent down, & you have now the whole truth, & we hope that you have taken down you will forward to the great Father below. The Chiefs of the Hurons present, Shitl Log, Isidore, & Warren declare that they have listened to what the Prophet has said, & that it is the simple truth without any addition of his own shakerer. -

Mr Ironside endeavoured to prevail on them to say who wrote the letter in question, but they did not do so. We also wished
