Mr. W. L. Mackenzie King,
Ottawa, Canada.

My dear Sir:

I forward the enclosed clipping from the Chicago Tribune because I think it will interest you. The question, "Did I do my best?" reminded me instantly of the words of your friend, Mr. Harper, "What else can I do?"

Mr. Lewis very kindly loaned me his copy of "The Secret of Heroism". I was glad of the opportunity to even read about such a splendid character. It was an enviable privilege to have known and to have been closely associated with a person of Mr. Harper's ideals.

Yours very truly,

Harriet Reid
