

D50034

As you enter upon the second session of this post-war Parliament, I pray that Divine Providence may guide and bless all your deliberations and the humanitarian work of Canada and its people in the myriad tasks of peace.