

Soldiers' Aid Commission of Ontario

HEAD OFFICE: TORONTO

The Soldiers' Aid Commission was established by the Government of the Province of Ontario in November, 1915, with the Honourable W. D. McPherson, Provincial Secretary, as Chairman, for the purpose of assisting in the rehabilitation of returned soldiers to civilian life.

Branches of the Commission have been organized in the following places in Military District No. 1, so that now returned soldiers can obtain information and practical assistance with a minimum of inconvenience.
