

Enoch Walked with God

guard you from stumbling, and to set you before the presence of His glory without blemish in exceeding joy, to the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion and power, before all time, and now, and forever.

And many more like passages too numerous to quote in so brief a work.

The men who have turned the world upside down have been the ones who, in a simple and childlike faith, have taken these glorious promises to mean just what they say, and have gone forth to work out their own salvation, conscious that it was God that worked in them to will and to do of His good pleasure. Bernard, Melancthon, Luther, Knox, the Wesleys, Finney, Moody, and Muller, have all been men of this stamp—men whom nothing daunted, because they walked with God, and knew that around them and beneath were the everlasting arms, and that little and weak as they might be, nevertheless their refuge and help was still the eternal God. From Him they drew their strength, and to Him they ascribed their victory. They were holy men, and because holy they were humble. They knew that their holiness was not due to any innate goodness or purity, nor indeed to any developed or cultivated goodness,
