

free visits to the surgery, but pay for all their medicines.

Number of Patients Treated in Ten Months.

North side of bay	11
Middle of bay	61
South side of bay	18
<hr/>
Total	90

Result of Treatment.

Benefited	52
Completely relieved	23
Not benefited	15
<hr/>
Total	90

Classification of Patients.

Medical	26
Surgical	64
<hr/>
Total	90

Average length of stay in hospital, two weeks.

Of course a ten months' experience is entirely inadequate in making definite conclusions in regard to an experiment of this kind, but there are certain general considerations which may be of interest. The problem which we set about to try to prove was to what extent a hospital in Green Bay could be made self-supporting. The chief difficulties in the work were the attitude and pre-