

son to ride without weighing.

Feather Weights.—A horse carries Feather Weight, when the terms of the race allow the owner to place what rider he pleases on his back; he consequently procures the lightest eligible jockey possible, who weighs neither before nor after the race.

A Maiden Horse or Mare is one that has never won.

An untried Stallion or Mare is one whose produce has never run in public.

THE PROPRIETOR'S PURSE of eighty dollars, added to a Sweepstakes of ten dollars each PP.—
Mile heats.

THIRD DAY.

THE CITY PURSE of one hundred dollars, added to a Sweepstakes of twelve dollars each PP.—
Two-mile heats.

The winner of the Turf Club Purse to be excluded from starting for the City Purse.