

From the Literature Department

66 Bloor Street West (Side Entrance)

Hours—9.30 to 1 and 2 to 5.30

Phone—Randolph 8577F.

FOR BANDS

- HEROINES OF HEALING is specially for Sr. girls, being delightful sketches of Ramabai, Dr. Rhijnhart, and Mary Reed, all in India. Regular price 35c. . . . Now 25c.
- THE WAY AND HOW OF MISSIONS IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. Its title describes the scope of this. It is brim full of ideas of how to bring and keep interest in the S. S. and among Juniors in Missions. Reg. price 60c. . . . Now 25c.
- DAVID LIVINGSTONE, a biographical sketch, paper covered booklet. Reg. price 15c. now selling at 5c. each
- LIVINGSTONE HERO STORIES, 4 stories from Livingstone's life, for boys and girls. Regular price 15c. now selling at 5c.
- UNDER MANY FLAGS, being 8 stories of missionary heroes told in a way suitable for Bands. Regular price 50c. now selling at 35c.
- CHILDREN AT PLAY IN MANY LANDS is a book telling of the games of different lands, by Katherine Hall. Reg. price 85c. now selling at 25c.
- MEN OF MARK ON MODERN MISSIONS being stories of 6 H. M. Missionaries. Reg. price 25c. now selling at 5c.

FOR SENIORS OR CIRCLES

- THE MISSIONARY MOTIVE, a series of papers by such men as Frederick L. Anderson and contains such articles as THE MISSIONARY MOTIVE FUNDAMENTAL, OUGHT WE TO BE A MISSIONARY NATION, ITS APPEAL TO THE YOUNG, ETC. This is an excellent complement to the BIBLE & MISSIONS and would make good reading for your Circle. Reg. price $1 now selling at 60c.
- THE SOCIAL ASPECT OF FOREIGN MISSIONS. The writer of this says, "Through the courtesy of Foreign Missionaries I found windows everywhere opening into the National life, doors flung wide and hands outstretched". When he gives us a look at Missionary Life through these open windows we should indeed be grateful. Regular price $1.25 now selling at 65c.
- NOTABLE WOMEN OF MODERN CHINA being sketches by Margaret Burton of 6 Chinese Christian women, doctors, ladies of wealth, etc. Unusually interesting this year when China is our Mission Study Book. Regular price $1.50, now selling at 60c.
- THE WHY AND HOW OF FOREIGN MISSIONS, by Arthur Judson Brown. The last chapter alone in this book would be worth the price, which is regularly 85c., now 35c.
- THE KINGDOM AND THE NATIONS. Reg. price 50c. now selling at 25c.
- FACTS AND AMERICAN RESPONSIBILITY give a view of the great enterprise from another country's point of view, which can easily be translated to our point of view, and a fresh one it will be. These make a wonderful appeal for effort. Regular price 55c. now selling at 25c.
- THE RAGE OF ISLAM is a thrilling story of Persia during the war, by a native, but Americanized missionary, with introduction and recommendation by Dr. Stuart McArthur.
- EDWARD JUDSON Interpreter of God, is the title of a wonderfully interesting biography of Adoniram Judson's son. Reg. price $1.00 now 40c.
- THE GOSPEL OF INDUSTRY, by Wm. G. Lippard. Reg. price 25c., selling at 10c.
- THE GOSPEL OF THE PLOW by Sam Higginbottom. It has been called "The old Gospel, and modern farming in ancient India." Reg. price 70c., now selling at 25c.
- FOREIGN MAGIC, by Jean Carter Cochrane. Very interesting missionary tales about China. Reg. price $1.50 now selling for 75c.
- THE GARO JUNGLE BOOK, by William Carey. Stories of Missions in Assam. Very fascinating. Reg. price $2 now selling at 75c.
- THE GOAL OF INDIA, by W. E. S. Holland, is several years old, but contains wonderfully good information on India, and was written with the hope that the reader might be "moved to love and serve India." Reg. price 75c., now selling at 20c.
- When sending for these books, please do not send money until the book arrives, for in some cases we only have one copy, and it may be sold. Moral—send immediately.