THE ARKANSAS SUITS.—It has developed that the suits were two in number against each insurance company for $5,000 each. Attorney-General Davis is very antagonistic, and threatens additional suits against any company that issues any contract of any character in the State. The New York companies are cancelling open contracts covering cotton, and also contracts covering loan business. The law in this State against any one inspecting or adjusting for unauthorized companies has a penalty of $500 fine and imprisonment for not less than one year, and will be rigidly enforced. Efforts are being made by insurers everywhere in the State to have the law amended, but have met with little encouragement as yet. The Attorney-General makes the following statement:

"These suits have been instituted in good faith, whether the law is repealed or not. It is not only the fire insurance companies that I am after under the law but many others. I wanted to see whether the Legislature would change the law, and it was not until I saw the temper of the House that the proceedings were begun in the courts. These suits are to test the law, and the Legislature ought to play hands off.
