MARKET REVIEW AND FORECAST

Toronto, Monday, August 17. - Not in many months has the market for farm products shown such a strong upward tendency as has been the case in the past two weeks. With the possible exception of fruit and live animals, live stock all products are in greater demand and at advanced prices. Higher quotations are all factors of the condition, and it would appear that Canadian farmers will gain rather than lose by the catastrophe.

In the cities of Canada there is a decided depression. Many farmers have sold down and many more are considering the advisability of doing so. Food prices are all along the line, and adding to the burdens of the poor. Unless prompt measures are taken for relief there will be much suffering in Canada this fall and winter.

WHEAT
 No. 1 Northern wheat is now quoted $1.18 to $1.20; No. 2 $1.15 to $1.18; Ontario wheat $1.10 to $1.15. These quotations are their own story. The demand for wheat supplies, the loss of crops in Europe and the fact that live stock are being sold in bulk lots have all conspired to advance prices. The market for wheat has been sold. Hence farmers are in a position to reap the advantage rather than the disadvantage.

COARSE GRAINS
 The most noticeable advance has been in oats and corn which have been classified as war supplies. Oats, C. W.
