CONFERRINGS DEGREE - AWARDING OF MEDALS AND OTHER PRIZES.

The students of the College of Ottawa gave yesterday evening, their last and most interesting entertainment of this scholastic year, to a numerous assembly of parents and friends, who came to witness and applaud the honors awarded to ness and applaud the honors awarded to their persevering application. The ex-hibition hall of the College was tastily prepared for the festive occasion. The bright, happy faces of some two hundred and fifty students ranged conspicuously on either side of the spacious hall, and executing in animated groups upon the appearing in animated groups upon the stage and the stand erected for the College band and orchestra, were of themselves a most attractive embellishment. The platform at the entrance of the hall, and facing the stage, was occupied by:-Bishop Muhamel, Vicar-General O'Con-ner, Father Antoine, Provincial of the Oblate Order, Rev. Dr. Tabaret, Dr. Grant, Lieut.-Colonel Panet, and many other distinguished gentlemen, both lay and clerical

The vocal and instrumental music was of the choicest kind, and its execution was in keeping with the high reputation which the Rev. J. B. Balland, O. M. I., director of music at the College, has long enjoyed as a teacher of the most charming and popular of the fine arts. The attainments of the students in science, and in at the same time, warning her that how was the time to act if she had any objec-tion or reason for withdrawing. To all which the responses were made in a clear and firm tone of voice. The postulant then retired in company with some of the of the students in science, and in philosophy, the mistress, guide and arbiter of all sciences, were attested by the elaborate and interesting essays read by Mr. Frank Nelson, of Hamilton, and Mr. John Robert, of Ottawa, representants of the second and first years of the philosophy

Mr. L. William Lawler, of Lowell, Mass., student of the graduating class, very cre-ditably performed the difficult task of giving expression in his valedictory ad-dress to the sentiments of himself and of Alma Mater, to bid farewell to college life, to their devoted professors and experienced guides, to pleasant companions and sincere friends. Towards the close of the programme took place the conferring degrees, of award-ing of medals and other prizes.

It must be highly gratifying to the reverend gentlemen in charge of the College to have received this year, as well as last year and the year before, striking proofs of the great interest which is taken in the marked success which attends their labors in the noble cause of education. In addition to the medal presented by His In addition to the medal presented by His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir John General of Canada, three others have this year been presented for the first time, the donors being His Lordship the Right Rev-General of Canada, three others have this year been presented for the first time, the donors being His Lordship the Right Rev-erend T. THE HONOR LIST .- GRADUATES

Of this scholastic year 1879-80.—The following gentlemen, after having successfully passed the several examinations re-quired for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, received their diplomas:—Rev. Alphonsus Leyden, O. M. I., of Ottawa; Rev. Celes-tin Flavien Marsan, O. M. I., of Quebec; Frank Nelson, of Hamilton, Ont., William Lawler, of Lowell, Mass. Undergraduates successful in the Inter-mediate Examination:-Francis Latchford, of Ottawa; Charles Paradis, of La-

HULLETT SEPARATE SCHOOL.

The annual examination of this school took place on Monday, 21st of June. It is under the supervision of Rev. Father Watters, and Miss O'Hara, a most com-petent and efficient teacher, has the care of the children. The little ones acquitted themselves in a most admirable manner, and to the entire satisfaction of the parents and the good and zealous pastor, who contributed handsomely to procur-ing a number of prizes, and also takes a lively interest in the welfare of the school. then retired in company with some of the sisterhood for the purpose of doffing the worldly dress in which she had appeared, and of substituting the plain black serge of the religious. During her absence, Monsignor Cazeau, with appropriate prayers, blessed the habit, veil, &c., which she was henceforth to wear. On her re-turn she was vested in the cincture and robes by the Reverend Mother Sumerior. Close confinement, careful attention to all factory work, gives the operatives pal-lid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out doors or use Hop Bitters, made of the purest and best re-medies, and especially for such cases, hav-ing abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. Being robed, Almighty on her behalf. Being robed, she returned to the grating and sang in a clear, firm voice several verses of an ap-propriate hymn, the chorus being taken up by the choir. The hymn Veni Creator Spiritus was then sung, all present kneel-ing and the postulant lying prostrate on her face and covered with the black mantle of the order. At its conclusion the "Our Father" and other prayers were chanted by Monsignor Cazeau and the rechanted by Monsignor Cazeau and the re-sponses given by the choir. The newly Patrick Collins, son of Mr. Daniel Collins, was drowned in the Thames, at Saunby's Dam, while bathing. The body was not recovered for about five hours after the yoing man sank. We offer Mr. Collins and his family our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement. This medicine is a decided benefit in all, and a permanent enre in a large majority of diseases of the blood, such as Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker, Pimples, &c. In prescribing this medicine we do not claim that it always performs cures; but this we do say, it purifies and enriches the blood, perman-ently curing a large majority of diseases arising from its impurities. It stands far ahead and unequalled among the hun-dreds of competing medicines of the day. It has stood the test for ten years, and is to-day more popular than ever. As a summer restorative it stands unrivaled ; it guards the system against the constant draw to which it is subjected by a high temperature.
