Injustice is very hard to bear. Yet we must all learn to expect it, and to suffer it as calmly as we can. To have our best deeds turned and twisted into evil ones; to have our acts and words utterly misrepresented; to have those turn cold to us for whom we have always felt the warmest friendship, is only the fate of humanity.

Beware of increasing your burdens by repining or foreboding. Many make the fatal mistake of loading themselves with more than their actual burden by brooding over the follies of yesterday and by anticipating the anxieties and worries of tomorrow.—Rev. F. Meyer.

Have one of the best equipped factories for the production of Church Organs in America, with experienced employees in every department, many having from 20 to 35 years' experience in organ building.

They have built some of the largest organs in America, a recent one, the great organ for the Chautauqua Institution of New York, erected at a cost of $26,000.00 and has received unqualified praise from the highest authorities.

Every organ produced receives the same care in manufacture whether small or large, the workmanship being equal.

Particular attention is paid to tone qualities.

Our special aim is to have sufficient volume, proper balance and a desirable variety of effect, these being the essential qualifications required in a Church Organ.

We follow the English system of voicing as it is more suitable for devotional services in our Churches than either the French or German systems, while being as fully applicable for such orchestral effects as may be desired.

We fully recognize the importance of the proper mechanical appliances for controlling the instrument and claim our recent organs to be absolutely second to none in this respect.

None of us can tell for what God is educating us. We fret and murmur at the narrow round and daily task of ordinary life, not realizing that it is only thus that we can be prepared for the high and holy office which awaits us. We must descend before we can ascend. We must suffer if we would reign. We must take the via crucis (way of the cross) submissively and patiently if we would tread the via lucis (way of light). We must endure the polishing if we would be shafts in the quiver of Emmanuel. God's will comes to thee and me in daily circumstances, in little things equally as in great; meet them bravely; be at your best always, though the occasion be one of the very least; dignify the smallest summons by the greatness of your response.—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

IDEAL PROTECTION.

In the Automatic Endowment Policy The Great-West Life offer a Contract for which there is a wide and increasing demand. The Policy provides an Endowment at Ordinary Life rates, thus affording protection at low cost, but avoiding the payment of life-long premiums. The profits, declared each five years, are compounded at the average net rate earned by the Company, at least four per cent, being guaranteed, until these profits and the reserve equal the face of the Policy, when it is paid as an Endowment.

A pamphlet has been issued, estimating the periods at which the Policy will mature at various ages, and a copy will be mailed on request
