field Stamp (6723). A three-year-old was by the Cawdor Cup champion Marcellus (1110), out of a mare by the Stranraer premium horse Ornament (10623), granddam by Prince of Fortune. From Mr. Wither, Awhirk, were bought two three-year-olds, both by Hiawatha Godolphin, and one out of a mare by the big horse Mains of Airies (10379), granddam by Prince of Wales (673); while the other is out of a mare by the noted, big, first prize horse Prince Robert (7135), the sire of the champion Hiawatha, and granddam by the noted and favourite sire of mares Old Times (579). From Mr. Kilpatrick, Craigie Mains, was purchased the Marcellus two-year-old filly, bred at Lochlane, whose dam was got by the unbeaten $3000 horse Prince of Albion (6178). This is breeding of an unusually high order. A yearling filly was also purchased from Mr. Kilpatrick. She was got by the Bute premium horse Royal Blend (11893), while her dam was by the big Cumberland horse Sterling (9425), which had the honour when a two-year-old of beating the celebrated Baron's Pride (9122) at Hamilton Show. Two two-year-old fillies were purchased from Mr. Thomas Lindsay, Aitkenbrae. Both were got by the unbeaten champion horse, Everlasting (11331), which was three years in succession first at the Highland and Agricultural Society's Shows, as well as first at other shows. The dam of one is the choice breeding mare Lady Anderson, by the noted Cawdor Cup champion horse Royal Gartly (9844), and the dam of the other is by the big, Stirling and Bute prize horse Fickle Fashion (10546), out of a mare by Crown Agent (10053).

STORY OF MESSENGER

When Messenger landed in the United States on May 16, 1788, the history of the trotting horse began. A flame was kindled that has never gone out. Messenger's light will never fade away, and any facts connected with the horse are always interesting to horsemen.

For many years there was a doubt about the place where Messenger was landed. It was claimed by some that he landed in New Jersey; others insisted that New York was the place where the horse first set foot on American soil, while others claimed that Philadelphia was the city in which he landed. The last-named is right, for in the Pennsylvania Packet and Advertiser of May 17, 1788, there is an account of the arrival at Philadelphia of the brig Dove, with assorted cargo and the stallions Messenger and Governor, from Liverpool.

In a copy of the same paper, June 15, 1788, is an advertisement of a stallion bill, stating that the gray stallion, imported Messenger, would stand for service during the season of 1788 at the Black Horse Tavern Stable, on Market street, near where Twelfth street is now, at a fee of $10 for the season and $1 each for the groom. In 1789 the same paper contained an ad that the horse would stand at William Cook's stable, on Lombard street, Philadelphia, at the same terms. The third season, 1790, the horse was at Cooper's Point, N. J., opposite Philadelphia.

The fourth season he was at Neshaminy Bridge, near Bristol, Pa.; his fee was $15. From 1791 until 1808 he was kept at various places in the State of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York. The seasons of 1798, 1805 and 1806 he stood at Oyster Bay, Long Island, at Townshend, Cook's farm. His fee had been raised to $45. In 1807 he was at a farm near where High Bridge is now. The fall of 1807 the horse was taken to Oyster Bay.

January 28, 1808, Messenger was found dead in his barn. Doubtless he died from old age, being twenty-eight years old. Such was the estimation in which the horse was held that the news of his death spread like wildfire throughout that part of the country. Hundreds flocked to see the last of the great hero. His grave was made under a large chestnut tree; the grave lined with a cedar plank. The great sire was dressed in his holiday attire. He was loaded on a stone drag and six of his sons, all gray, with a black body blanket, were hitched to the stone drag.

A military company with a band of music and hundreds of people formed a
