"SOVEREIGN" SHEATHING FELT

(Trade Mark Registered)

Cuts Down Coal Bills

The house whose walls, ceilings and floors are interlined with "SOVEREIGN" Sheathing Felt is draft-proof, easily heated and comfortable in the severest weather.

"SOVEREIGN" Sheathing Felt is really light-weight Ruberoid—the same fabric with wool, saturated and coated with the same Ruberoid Gum. It contains no paper, oil or tar; is clean, odorless, waterproof, vermin-proof, fire-resisting, and will not rot or become mouldy.

Its slight extra cost is returned to you with interest in lower coal bills and greater comfort.

Get a sample of "SOVEREIGN" Felt from the nearest Ruberoid Dealer, or write us direct for sample and Booklet K.

CHEAP EXCURSIONS

TO THE

Government Farms

Indian Head, Sask., July 18th and 19th

Rates for the round trip are away below the price of a single fare at ordinary times. Special trains will be run on TUESDAY, JULY 18, from the Soo line, the Outlook branch, the Main line from Swift Current to Indian Head, and the Arcola line.

On WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, trains will be run from the main line of the C.P.R. between Fleming and Indian Head, from the Wolseley-Teston line, and from the C.N.R. between Saskatoon and Regina.

For Train Times and Fares see Posters

Farmers will attend these excursions in larger numbers than ever before. People look forward to this annual outing. No better place to spend a day, whether in search of information or pleasure. The educational exhibit of the College of Agriculture will be there, and competent guides will explain the work of the farm. Free rigs provided by the Experimental Farm will meet the trains and convey excursionists about the farm. Bring your lunch baskets and picnic under the beautiful green trees.
