

The Journal of Commerce

and

Shareholder

The Deputy Minister
Labour Dept. 31 Dec 13

Two of Canada's oldest and most reliable weekly journals, recently amalgamated to strengthen the work previously done by each in the field of COMMERCE, FINANCE AND INSURANCE. Under the new management much attention will also be given to Canadian INDUSTRY. In this department the editors will have the assistance of the combined editorial forces of The Canadian Mining Journal, The Pulp and Paper Magazine of Canada, The Canadian Miller and Cerealists and the Canadian Textile Journal.

Vol LXXVI

MONTREAL, SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1913.

No. 18

Principal Contents

The Money Outlook.....	647	Stock Exchange Values.....	660
May Moving in Montreal.....	648	Violated Bank Act.....	660
Atlantic Ocean Travel War.....	648	Bay of Quinte Notes.....	660
Will Grand Trunk Board be Removed to Montreal.....	649	Textile Manufacturers and the Dye Trust.....	660
Canada's Coal Imports.....	649	Trade between Canada and U. K.....	661
The Turkish Debt.....	650	Canadian Coal for Hawaii.....	661
Cut in Express Rates.....	650	Capital Issues in London.....	661
Big Ship Underwriting.....	651	"Bear Operators" and the News.....	661
Bank Mergers in Canada.....	651	Lord Rothschild is Mildly Optimistic.....	661
Distribute your Investments.....	652	One Aspect of the New Loan Issues.....	661
Japanese Finances.....	654	Mark Fruit Packages.....	661
Making War Sinews Taut.....	654	Millinery Destroyed.....	661
Good-Will of Companies.....	655	High Taxes and Flight of Capital.....	661
Montreal Bond Sales.....	655	One Absorber of Gold.....	661
Railroad Earnings.....	656	Financial Review.....	662
The Proposed Underwood Tariff Bill.....	656	Financial Notes.....	663
Arson Agitators Avaunt.....	656	Business Changes.....	664
U. S. Steel Corporation Savings.....	656	Standing in the Way of Peace.....	664
Growth of Deposits.....	657	Reassuring Prophecy.....	664
Canada Stands Ninth in World's Shipping.....	657	Wholesale Markets.....	664
Submarine Warnings.....	657	Pulp and Paper Markets.....	666
Gold Output.....	657	Fluctuations of French Rentes.....	667
"A Smudgeless" Ink.....	657	Company Incorporations.....	667
British India's Jute Industry.....	657	Freight Rates in New South Wales.....	667
Fire Record.....	658	Canadian Roads Equipment Needs.....	668
Business Difficulties.....	659	Insurance Rates.....	668
Insurance Notes.....	659	Orders and Output.....	669
Optimism in an Unexpected Spot.....	659	During the Money Strain.....	669
Labour at the Rand Mines.....	659	Bank of Montreal in London.....	669
To Increase Annuity.....	659	Dividend Notices.....	671, 672
British Trade.....	659		