—We have to thank the treasurer of St. John's presbytery, of Arthur for a complimentary to their annual picnic, also one from Port Elgin, Kincardine and Wroxeter.

—If you need bill heads, letter heads note heads, circulars, envelopes, or anything in the printing line done. Give the GAZETTE a chance. We do all kinds of work in German or English.

—Mr. A. Murat left on our desk a few stocks of his Alfalfa clover which measured three feet one inch. This is the second crop Mr. Murat has raised off this piece of land this year and he expects one or two more before the season closes.

—Rev. A. Scratch preached his farewell sermon in the Methodist church on Sunday evening last. Mr. and Mrs. Scratch left for their future home in Leamington on Tuesday morning. The GAZETTE joins their many friends in wishing them happiness in their new home.

—The tuneful sound of the mower may be heard in the hay fields these days. The hay crop is almost a total failure in this district, in fact the same may be said of the crop throughout the province, the extremely dry weather being responsible. Hay is quoted at $15 per ton.

—As we are in need of money badly we would thank all our subscribers who are in arrears if they would call in and renew their subscriptions. We have to pay cash for our stock and must have cash for our work. Come friends assist us with the amount due us, and we will be ever thankful.

—The Wroxeter Advocate is responsible for the following:—An editor of a neighboring village created a sensation in church recently, while the congregation was singing a well known hymn, by shouting "Let every kindred, every tribe on this terrestrial ball, put down their money and subscribe, and we'll receipt for all." He was promptly ejected.

—Don't forget Deemerton's grand demonstration on Monday next, July 1st. The committee is sparing no pains to make this event a success. A grand calithurpian procession will take place in the forenoon, followed by a bicycle race, open to the world. At one p. m. a baseball match will be played between Mildmay and Teeswater clubs, after which all kinds of athletic sports will be indulged in.
