THE COURIER.

MONDAY, JULY 22, 1850.

We copy from the New York Commercial Advertiser the following very interesting letter, brought to this city by the first British vessel that has arrived with a cargo from China since the alteration in the Navigation Laws.

With respect to the last part of the letter, we may simply remark, that the Queen of England has about as much to do with the opium trade as the President of the United States...

It is not for the opium, the country would produce in the form of opium, but in the form of opium, which is the only article that is produced in the country...
