SLASHING ATTACK ON MR. JOHN BURNS

"Too Autocratic" at the Head of Local Government Board.

Mr. John Burn's administration of the Local Government Board was indicted in the House of Commons on Thursday during the discussion on the annual vote for his department.

Mr. Walter Long, who occupied that position in the last Unionist Ministry, moved a resolution of the vote by £100. He did so, he said, not because of any hostility to Mr. Burns, a fine specimen of the rugged, strong, determined Englishman, but because he feared there had been in the administration of the Board a great deal too much of the President and too little of the Department of which he was the head.

Mr. Burns had always said, "Leave it to me; I will make it all right." (Laughter) Was it all right? In connection with the question of the Housing of the Working Classes Mr. Burns, in his opinion, had been guilty of a very grave failure in the discharge of his duty. It had, in fact, been left to a most democratic Minister to make the Local Government Board the most autocratic of Government Departments.

He thought it Mr. Burns's duty to make a grant in aid under the Act of 1909, as he had full power to do. Cottages were badly wanted in various districts, and in many cases it was impossible to build them. Instead the President issued orders which local authorities could not carry out, as they imposed extra burdens on the rates.

Sir A. Griffith Boscawen (C.) said they urgently required 100,000 cottages in rural districts immediately, and at the present rate of building under the Local Government Board acts, it would take 700 years and seven months to erect these.

The Sir Ryland Adkins (L.) declared that Mr. Burns's Poor Law policy would not hasten the time when there would be no work houses, but tended to make workhouse methods permanent. He hoped Mr. Burns would dispel the prevailing notion that he was against giving any assistance from the central fund for problems of rural housing.

Mr. Waldorf Astor (C.) complained that under the Insurance Act insured persons were not getting the sanatorium benefit for which they had paid. Mr. Burns was to a very large extent responsible for this, having been woefully slow in stimulating local insurance committees to provide sanatorium benefit.

"An Anachronism." In London especially the sanatorium benefit was chaotic. Mr. Burns had deliberately slighted the London County Council and had been guilty of gross negligence. He had acted rather as an inspector than as President of the Local Government Board. Mr. Burns might have been a good administrator fifty or sixty years ago but at present he was an anachronism.

Mr. Glyn Jones (L.) expressed the view that Mr. Astor had not been fair to Mr. Burns. The London County Council must share with the Local Government Board the blame for any delay which had taken place in providing sanatorium treatment for insured persons.

Sir Mark Sykes spoke of the necessity of pressure being brought to bear upon local authorities by the Local Government Board to improve the water supply. If this were done the number of deaths from typhoid fever in rural districts would be sensibly diminished.

Mr. Gurns admitted the importance of a proper water supply in rural districts, and promised to use every endeavor to pass the Bill this year, which dealt with the subject. He pointed out that during the last three or four years a considerable number of Poor Law children had been removed from workhouses. At present there were not more than 8,000 children in workhouses throughout the country, and nearly half of these were in separate buildings. In London there were now only 165 children in workhouses, of whom seventy-four were in separate buildings. (Cheers)

At 8:15 the debate was interrupted for the consideration of private business. With regard to the sanatorium benefit to insured persons, he referred to the speech of Mr. Astor, and said the hon. member made up in rudeness what he lacked in argument.

GREAT SEIZURE OF ARMS IN LONDON

6,000 Rifles With Bayonets Found at Hammersmith - Investigating Matter

A stable in Long street, Hammersmith, which had for some days been under police surveillance, was raided on Tuesday, when 6,000 rifles, with bayonets and ammunition, were seized. The guns were packed in boxes, each box containing about fifteen and are believed to have been intended for transport to Ulster. They are of the Italian 1886 pattern.

The seizure was made about seven o'clock by a number of officers. To secure an entrance they had to break open the stable door. The task of removal took about two hours to accomplish, and the operations of the police were watched with interest by a large crowd.

None was on the premises at the time the police effected their coup, and no arrests have been made. The 6,000 rifles which were detained by Custom officials at Dublin came from the same stable, which a few weeks ago was hired by a man in the name of John Ferguson & Co.

The same person hired the slip van from Messrs. Morgan & Co. in which 500 rifles were conveyed to Dublin. Detectives had been keeping observation on the premises and warned the Irish authorities as each consignment left London, thus leading to the seizure by the Custom officials at Belfast and Dublin.

Twelve hundred of the rifles were on Thursday removed on two drays to the Proof House, Commercial road E., for testing purposes. Over 200 cases remain to be opened, and the work of unpacking is not improved by the fact that water has invaded the stable and is lying an inch deep.

Scotland Yard is now keeping a keen watch for a number of ships which are due to arrive within the next few days, and on board of which there are supposed to be consignments of similar weapons.

The furniture van, containing arms which was seized in Dublin, has been claimed by the owner, a London man to whom it will be returned after certain formalities.

A consignment of 2,500 rifles on Tuesday night left London addressed "To the order of Messrs Carson & Co., Midland ondtar thes cabrt Co., Midland station, Bedford, to be called for."

The mystery of the consignment is investigated by the British and Foreign Wharf, Wapping. It was then discovered that one of the ten cases, each marked "W. B." and entered on the manifest as containing "small arms," had broken in half, exposing a number of closely packed rifles of an old type which had been converted into carbines.

For a week the cases lay on the wharf, but on Tuesday they were handed over to the Midland Railway Company for delivery at Bedford.

THE DANGER OF ANAEMIA Consumption May Follow Unless Its Ravages Are Checked.

There is danger to every girl and every woman who falls a victim to anaemia—that is bloodlessness. They become listless, feel too weak, too wretched and too hopeless to take prompt steps to stop the trouble.

Too often, through neglect, they drift into a worse condition, forgetting that anaemia frequently leads on to consumption. If you are anaemic in the least degree you should lose no time in beginning treatment to increase and enrich the blood supply.

To do this there is no other medicine so good as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose helps make rich, red blood, which drives out disease and brings again the bloom of health to pale and sallow cheeks.

There are thousands of women and growing girls in Canada who owe their present good health to the timely use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Among those who have been restored by this great medicine is Miss Rose Neville, Mount Forest, Ont., who says: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills performed almost a miracle in my case. I was a victim of anaemia, in what my friends considered a dangerous form. I was very pale, always felt tired out, suffered from severe headaches, and had no appetite. I was taking doctor's medicine for a long time—in fact I tried two doctors—but instead of improving I seemed to be growing worse. My parents were at a loss to know what to do for me and thought I would not recover. Then a friend advised Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I had only taken them a few weeks when I began to feel better. This greatly encouraged me and I continued taking the Pills for some time longer, and found my health again as good as ever it had been. In fact I am stronger than ever I was before. I have advised the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to other girls who have found the results equally beneficial."

REGARDED AS SERIOUS

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The Japanese Embassy had not last evening received any report of the expulsion of a number of Japanese subjects from Hemet, California. While full details of the incident are not known it is felt that such an occurrence is just what both governments had hoped would not come up during the discussions of the California Land Law controversy. It has been felt from the first by those in positions of authority in the Administration that one of the gravest dangers of the situation was the possibility of clashes between whites and Japanese either in California or Japan. It is realized that if the incident in Hemet was really the outbreak of racial antipathy that the Japanese government will be in a position to make the situation embarrassing for the United States. That the persons expelled claimed to be Koreans is not regarded as altering the case materially, as all Koreans are now citizens of the Japanese government.

The "Paving Determinator's" Verdict.

THE "Paving Determinator" is an ingenious machine that was built by the department of Public Works of Detroit—to subject sample stretches of various street pavements to severe, actual service tests. It imitates heavy trucks and steel-shod draught horses, reproducing, in faithful detail, every effect of this kind of traffic. This remarkable machine was recently used to test five varieties of street pavement—covering practically the entire range of present-day road coverings.

A report of the test says: "When the test had been made under the direction of Mr. McCabe and officials of the department, on eight sections of pavement laid in a circular track, the concrete section, laid under the specifications of the Board of County Road Commissioners of Wayne County, Michigan, showed by far the best resistance to the severe test to which the pavements were put."

JACK JOHNSON IS NOW IN CANADA He Got Across the Border is Now in Montreal Awaiting Ship.

MONTREAL, June 27.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, accompanied by his white wife, arrived in Montreal early this morning, having come through direct from Chicago. During the day he moved six times through the city, being escorted to houses where he had engaged in an effort to evade newspapermen and the possibility of a clash with the immigration officials. Last night, however, he called at the Montreal Gazette office and made the following statement:

"I will remain in Montreal until next Tuesday, when I am booked to sail for Europe. I intend going to St. Petersburg where I have a contract to fight Sam Langford, 'Gunboat' Smith. These fights will be pulled off some time in September."

Johnson stated that the immigration authorities made no effort to stop him at the Canadian line, claims there is $23,000 due him in Toronto, and he came this way to collect it before sailing for Europe. He also says he does not forfeit his ball bond, as it only requires presence in court in Chicago in November. He declares he has no intention of forfeiting this ball bond but will return to the Windy City the date set for the hearing of appeal from the conviction in the white slave case.

Tom Flanagan, manager of the Montreal Star, could not be located last night. It was thought that he could see the champion's statement relating the above mentioned $23,000. As can be learned he does not set foot in Toronto.

A Way to Get Johnson Back CHICAGO, June 27.—As soon as agents of the Department of Justice received a report that Jack Johnson had been seen in Montreal, they began a search. At Johnson's side here it was stated that the pugilist had gone on a fishing trip to Lake Chas. F. Dewdney, Department of Justice special agent, at Cedar Lake, and told that Johnson was not there. "From the circumstances I think it not improbable that Johnson has gone to Canada," said Mr. Dewdney. "However, he may be brought back from there, although the crime is extraditable, as it is the custom of the Canadian police to expel those who are under conviction of crime. It is said that as Johnson is coming to Canada to live, but in his possession the contracts bouts in Russia, together with tickets through to Paris, he is liable to arrest."
