DELEGATION GONE TO INTERVIEW GOVERNMENT

The Nova Scotia Fruit Growers Association has taken time by the forelock in their endeavors to arrange for shipment of fruit to Great Britain next year. The embargo on transhipment of fruit will hit the fruit growers hard if it continues throughout the next shipping season. However it is considered most probable that fruit will be wanted in England next fall and war conditions will likely be so solved that a way will be found to get the fruit there.

To make export of fruit more certain the fruit growers of Nova Scotia are moving energetically in the matter. A delegation recently appointed has gone to Ottawa to interview Sir George Foster and other members of the Government and Commons.

Those who left on the mission were Mr. A. E. McMahon, President of the United Fruit Companies, Mr. W. H. Chase a very heavy exporter of Wolfville, Mr. F. H. Johnston, Bridgetown, and Mr. George E. Graham, Manager of the D. A. B.

The English markets, which have been cut off by the fruit embargo of the British authorities, take ordinarily ninety per cent of the crop and it is hoped that ways and means may be found at this conference to re-open in part, these markets next autumn.
