The Old And New Way

Some Important Facts Which May Prove Helpful

Thirty years ago old-fashioned cod liver oil had to be forced down a patient's throat. Invalids couldn't take it, and children wouldn't. But the doctors prescribed it, and it had to be taken by force. Yet it cured people where enough could be taken into the system, for it has ever been the great- est of all tissue builders and general reconstructors known to medicine.

We are now anxious to have every one know that Vinol is a new form of this very old and valuable remedy, containing concentrated form all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but by an extractive and concentrating process it is made without oil or grease, and it is as delicious to the taste as a fresh orange.

Vinol does not upset the stomach like old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions; its strengthening and healing properties are remarkable, and both doctors and patients are delighted with its action.

Many wonderful cures right here in Athens have been effected by its use, and we ask all of our customers to try Vinol on our guarantee to return money, every time it fails to make rich, red blood, increase the appetite, cure stomach troubles, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, run-down, tired and debilitated, or cure chronic colds, hacking coughs or bronchitis. J. P. Lamb & Son, Druggists, Athens, Ont.

GLEN BUELL

On Monday the 18th, Rev Mr. Stafford, Methodist pastor, Lyn, began revival meetings at Glen Buell. The attendance has been good at the cottage meetings as well as at the regular. Much good is being done.

Mr. C. J. Gilroy has recently installed a grand organ in his comfortable home, while Mr. Alvin Gilroy has purchased a first class piano for his parlor.

In the not very remote distance, sharp eared persons profess to hear the faint tinkle of wedding bells and if it develops into a lovely fact, it may cause some moving round and round.

Mr. Coleman Lee has made preparations to move several buildings in Brockville. He is a man of long experience in this line of business.

Mr. Collins Mullen, the Athens' express man, has all the freight he can handle. He is very agreeable, pleasing everybody, and makes his trips as regularly as the trains.

Mr. El Westlake has been very successful this season in securing fox pelts and other valuable furs.

She's just a summer boarder, Unpolished, I'll allow. She bristles at the pumpkin; She cannot milk a cow. She's most unamiable at coops and stalls and sties, But three times oh, and ply the host Wot eyes she has—wot eyes!

She's just a summer boarder, Unfinished, I'll aver. The fustle call of cabbage Means nothing much to her. She's ojus to the turnip And worse to homemade pie, But three times wow, and steer the plow! Wot eyes she has—wot eyes!

She's just a summer boarder, Untutored, I confess. Indifferent to haystacks, Uncountrified in dress. Intolerant to sheaves, Unladylike to flies. But three times hail, and swing the flail! Wot eyes she has—wot eyes! —Thomas R. Thorne in New York Times.

Not to Be Dared. Although Johnnie's and Willie's mothers are warm friends, those boys are always fighting each other.

After a recent battle the victorious Johnnie was urged by his mother to go and make friends with his fallen foe. She even offered to give him a party if he would go over and invite Willie to come to that festivity.

After much urging Johnnie promised to do as his mother wished, so the party came off at the appointed time and was violently enjoyed by all present, but Willie did not come.

"Now, Johnnie, did you invite him?" asked Johnnie's mother. "Yes, I did! Yes, ma'am, I invited him," answered Johnnie, "I invited him," he added reflectively, "and I dared him to come."—Harper's Weekly.

Wanted to Help the Little Fellow. Two men were engaged in sawing timber in the Maine woods. One was a big, heavy and very fierce looking fellow, the other a weak and ineffec- tive little chap. They were using a crosscut saw. A big Irishman hap- pened along, and after standing there a few minutes watching them pull back and forth, decided that the big one was trying to take advantage of the other. The Irishman reprimanded the big fellow, which caused a row. After Pat had given him a good threat- ening he turned and said, "Now, I give you'll let the little fellow have it, he gorry!"—Judge's Library.

In a French Court. Counsel (addressing the judge after he had got his client, a thief, acquitted in the face of strong evidence)—Your honor, I would be obliged if you would order that this man be not released from custody until tomorrow.

Judge—Certainly, but what is your reason? Counsel—Well, you see, the road near my home is rather lonely, and as my client knows quite well that I shall have money on me he might possibly lay in wait for me.—Bon Vivant.

The Quest of a Discoverer. "Managers declare that they have discovered some great actors and some remarkable plays." "Actors and plays," replied Storm- ington Barnes, "are always in the air. What I want to find is something that can be relied on for the amusement of the audiences."—Washington.

Read the following testimonial from a man you all know:

Mr. W. A. Singleton, Forfar, Feb. 6, 190

Crosby, Ont.

Dear Sir,—Being laid up with lame back, I thought I would drop you a line to tell you that your St. Louis Lumbago cure will do all you claim for it, as I have only used part of the bottle and I feel no returning symptoms of the disease.

may say I have been troubled with lame back for the last ten years, and tried several other patent medicines but without results. I can heartily recommend it to any troubled with lame back, and I feel safe in saying that it's the cheapest medicine on the market.

Yours Truly,

JAMES McCUE
