CAN THEY MARRY?

Prince George and Princess Victoria of Wales Engaged

But the Rules of the Greek Church Stand in the Way of Their Marriage.

London, Nov. 19.—The announcement of the engagement of Prince George of Greece and Princess Victoria of Wales was a great surprise to England. There is a strong obstacle in the way, and that is no one has suggested a way to overcome, namely their blood relationship. For it is a hard and fast law of the Greek church that first cousins shall not marry. In the Catholic church a dispensation has sometimes been given with such an obstacle, in the Greek church, never.

Prince George's father is a Lutheran, but his children are all members of the orthodox church of their country. (And the prince is not likely to give up his religion, for he is governor-general of Greece, and such apostasy would make him intensely unpopular.) How the difficulty is to be overcome remains to be seen. It will probably result in the patriarch of Constantinople granting a dispensation, but this will be the first ever granted. In England, for George is the sort of man the British loves, big, handsome, athletic and good natured. He is poor, it is true, but not with the poverty of the German princes, on whom British princesses have so often been thrown away.

It is said that Queen Victoria is delighted. She is entertaining the young lovers at Windsor, and seeing that they have every opportunity of meeting alone without the restraint and formality with which royalty is always hedged about.

THE WORLD IS SMALL

How Two Canadians Who First Met in Capetown Stumbled On Each Other in London.

London Free Press.

It is true to say the world is small, but a recent incident in London is worth relating as bearing on the point. Some years ago Thomas Moffat left his native city and went to Cape Town, Africa, where he engaged in business. When the first Canadian contingent for the war left there was in the ranks a young named Victor Marantette, of Windsor. Among the visitors to the hospital at Cape Town was Moffat, and among the patients was Marantette. Being invalided home, Marantette came after an interval to visit some friends in this city. He was a stranger in London, and he accompanied the first man he met on Richmond street after leaving the depot.

"Can you tell me the way to Fullerton street?"

"Yes I can. (A pause). Is your name not Marantette?"

"Yes. (Another pause and a second glance). And you are Tom Moffat who visited me in the hospital at Cape Town?"

A pause by night had wondered why they shook hands so cordially.

THE GIRL SCREAMED

And This Frightened Burglar Ran Into a Policeman's Arms.

Toronto, Nov. 19.—Miss Fawkes, a sixteen-year-old girl, residing with her parents at 88 Louise street, had an adventure with a burglar last night. She was awakened by a noise in her bedroom, and by the light from the window, which was open, saw a man groping about in the dark. She screamed for help, and the burglar rushed to the door and shut it in the father's face. As Mr. Fawkes tried to force it open the burglar struck him and stunned him. A policeman, attracted by the noise, caught the burglar, a big negro, named Smith, as he rushed from the building after the struggle. Fawkes was taken to the emergency hospital rather badly battered.

CLIMBING UPWARDS.

Morton Sheldon, who for several years was in the head offices of the Sutherland-Innes Co., and lately assistant cashier and second book-keeper with the Willis Creek Coal Co. of Detroit, spent Sunday with his parents on Harvey street. Mr. Sheldon left for Berryburg, West Virginia, today, where he has been appointed to the position of cashier for the mine and stores of the Willis Creek Coal Co. Some idea of the responsibility and importance of Mr. Sheldon's position may be gathered from the fact that he is under $10,000 bonds. Mr. Sheldon's many Chatham friends will be pleased to learn of his promotion, and all will join in wishing him success and prosperity during his residence in the south.

THE ARMY OF HEALTH.

The Army in the Philippines Insaluticant Compared With This One.

If all the people in the United States Canada and Great Britain, who make daily use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets could be assembled together it would make an army that would outnumber our army of one million thousand by at least five to one.

Men and women who are broken down in health are only a part of the thousands who use this popular preparation, the greater number are people who are in fair health, but who know that the way to keep well is to keep the digestion perfect and Stuart's Tablets as regularly as meal time comes round to insure good digestion and proper assimilation of food. Prevention is always better than cure and disease can find no foothold if the digestion is kept in good working order by the daily use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Mr. Thomas Seale, Mayfield, Calif., says: "I have used and recommended Stuart's Tablets because there is nothing like them to keep the stomach right."

Miss Lelia Dwyer, 4627 Plummer St., Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I wish everyone to know how grateful I am for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I suffered for a long time and did not know what ailed me. I lost flesh right along until one day I noticed an advertisement of these tablets, and immediately bought a 50-cent box at the drug store. I am only on one box and am gaining in flesh and color. I have at last found something that has reached my ailment."

Mrs. Del. Eldred, Sun Prairie, Wis., says: "I was taken down very suddenly during the hot weather of the past summer. After ten days of constant dizziness, I went to our local physician, who said my liver was tormented. I had over heated myself for various reasons. He prescribed a course of medicine for me for two weeks without much improvement. I finally thought of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets (which I had used long before for various ailments) and the first three tablets helped me.

They are easily the best of all around family medicine I ever used. The army of people who take Stuart's Tablets are mostly people in fairly good health, and who keep well by taking them regularly after meals. They contain no opiate, no cocaine, no cathartic or purgative drugs, simply peptones and digestives which every weak stomach lacks.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists everywhere in United States, Canada and Great Britain.

BY THIS VICTORY

Chatham Tied the Glencoe Football Club.

Three Teams Still in the Race for the Walker Cup.

The Maple City Football Club is still a decided feature in the exciting struggle which is taking place this season for the Peninsular League championship.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather on Saturday a large throng of enthusiasts turned up on Tecumseh Park and witnessed their favorites take a good round out of the Glencoe team in the protested semi-final game, ordered by the League Executive. The ground was soggy, with patches of snow here and there, the ball was heavy and slippery, and a drizzling rain fell during a portion of the game. But the enthusiasts who braved the elements—and there were many ladies among the number—were rewarded by witnessing a magnificent, clean, hard contest in which the best team came out victorious—and that best team was Chatham.

The winning of the first game by the cup holders was received with hearty plaudits and necessitated the playing of a second. After 22 minutes of hard playing, however, Referee McNeeney deemed it too dark to continue, and the latter contest terminated with no scoring. This leaves the three clubs—Chatham, Glencoe and Walkerville—tied for the championship honors.

At 2.46 the teams lined up as follows:—

CHATHAM.
Goal—Fred Sowerby.
Backs—J. W. Wilson and S. Courtney.
Halves—F. D. Laurie, P. Piggett and P. Miller.
Right Wing—H. W. Anderson and R. L. Cook.
Centre—Wm. Mowbray.
Left Wing—Max Fraser and Charles Bowers.

GLENCOE.
Goal—J. R. Scott.
Backs—D. A. Galbraith and A. J. Carter.
Halves—A. D. McAlpine, W. Johnson and D. J. McGugan.
Right Wing—J. A. Johnson and W. N. Harrison.
Centre—D. G. Galbraith.
Left Wing—J. E. Wren and Mac Elliott.

The match was fiercely contested throughout, but the Chathams demonstrated that they were in the best condition and played a much faster game. The work of the local forward line was especially brilliant at times, and their fast combination runs proved very effective. Mowbray in centre contributed his best, and an excellent best it was, while the two wings vied with each other for speed and effect. On the half-back line Lau-

For Gentlemen

We realize that there are yet other games to be won are we retain the championship, and a day's victory will prove a further incentive to earnest and diligent practice.

Referee Wm. McDonald said, "It was certainly the finest League struggle of this season. Both teams played plucky, energetic and fast football, and neither has any reason to be at all ashamed of its showing. In my opinion Chatham won because their team combination was more perfected, their condition excellent and their coaching careful and heady. But the Glencoe played was exceptionally good and would win easily under ordinary circumstances."

COMPLIMENTARY SPREAD.

On Saturday evening the members of the victorious football team and the officers of the Chatham club were entertained by John Smith to a sumptuous supper at Hall's cafe in honor of the result of the afternoon contest.

There were present, Robert Gray, honorary president of the club, who presided; Dr. D. G. Fleming, honorary vice-president; John Piggett, president; G. P. Schofield, Dr. R. V. Bray, Arch. Park, R. Jones, W. C. McNaughton, F. D. Laurie, W. H. Brackin, R. Cook, J. W. Wilson, M. Sheldon, Wm. Mowbray, H. W. Anderson, C. Bowers, P. Miller, P. Piggett, F. Sowerby, M. Fraser, S. Courtney, S. Mercer and others.

At the conclusion of the excellent repast, provided on motion of Dr. Fleming, seconded by Mr. Laurie, a cordial vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Smith for his kindly generosity in thus entertaining the club.

Encouraging and congratulatory addresses were delivered by Robert Gray, John Piggett, Dr. Fleming, Dr. Bray, G. P. Schofield, Arch. Park, F. D. Laurie and others. Cheers for the club, its officers and Mr. Laurie, and the singing of the National Anthem brought a pleasant evening to a close.

And now to practice again.

Every man played the game of his life.

Who said Chatham was lacking on the forward line?

What's the matter with the Chatham half-back trio?

Captain Wilson deserves much credit on the team's showing.

For defence work, commend us to Wilson and Courtney.

Sowerby still retains his record as the best goal custodian in the league.

Glencoe missed—Goal-keeper Newey.

Laurie was right when he said Chatham would win her games on the field.

A number of Glencoe rooters accompanied their team.

Hon. Pres. Robert Gray—I congratulate the team and am honored in being an officer of the club. I saw a portion of the game and was proud of our showing and the gentlemanly conduct of the players.

President John Piggett—I predicted victory and am happy to unite in celebrating it.

Hon. Vice-President Dr. Fleming—The team have done themselves, their club and the city at large a service by their splendid showing to-day.

G. P. Schofield—I am proud of the Chatham Football Club and of the team as gentlemen amateurs. Professional sport may entertain me, but amateur exhibitions win my respect, admiration and enthusiasm.
