

TEA! TEA!

We make a leader of the above article and are prepared to give better value than others.

Our 15 cent Tea is a marvel; sale is increasing every day.

Our 3 & 5 lb canisters are unequalled in the county; customers pronounce it the best they ever used.

Our Japanese Baskets (1, 2 & 3lb) are wonderfully popular, being very useful as well as ornamental.

Eggs, Butter, Oats, Dried Apples, Tallow, etc., wanted at

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 4, 1889.

Local and Provincial.

EXCHANGE.—The pulpit of the Presbyterian church was occupied on Sunday last by Rev. Mr. Dawson, of Canard, Rev. Mr. Ross filling the pulpit in that place.

HARPER.—Two companies of harpers furnished "sweet music" on our streets last Friday—rather an unusual occurrence for the 25th day of December.

MORE LIGHT.—Mr. Burpee Witter has erected a street lamp in front of his place of business. If a few more of our public spirited men would do likewise we would soon have our streets lighted.

St JOHN'S CHURCH.—Sunday next, January 6th, the Festival of the Epiphany, there will be morning prayer, sermon, and celebration of the holy communion in St John's Church, Wolfville at 11 o'clock, and the usual afternoon service at 3. On Thursday, Jan. 10th, the course of lectures on the History and Sources of the Prayer Book will be concluded.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—Next week being the "week of prayer" the usual union prayer meetings will be held in the different churches. On Monday and Thursday evenings it will be held in the Baptist church, Tuesday and Friday evenings in the Methodist church, and on Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church.

ALMOST A FIRE.—The Baptist church of this place had a narrow escape from being consumed by fire on Wednesday evening. Fire had been made in the furnaces to heat the building for a meeting of the congregation and in some way the wood work became ignited.

GASPEREAU.—The village of GasperEAU, situated some 2 1/2 miles from Wolfville, is one of the most enterprising villages in the county.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—On Monday last Miss Newcomb, from Port Williams, while skating on the Tannery pond, broke through the ice and was with considerable difficulty and after a severe wetting saved from drowning.

THE WITNESS.—The Montreal Witness is offering a great inducement to its subscribers for the Daily and Weekly Witness for 1889, by giving them a copy of the $120,000 picture, "Christ before Pilate," the most notable picture ever brought to America, for only twenty-five cents.

BAD ACCIDENT.—On New Year's day Mr. Robert Westcott, of GasperEAU, was exercising an unbroken colt by driving it harnessed to a wagon.

WE DESIRE

To call particular attention to our stock of FANCY SLIPPERS, For Ladies' and Gents' Wear.

OUR GENTS' FURNISHING DEPARTMENT

C. H. Borden, Wolfville.

Local and Provincial.

PROPERTY CHANGES.—We understand that Mr. B. G. Bishop has sold his property, now occupied by Prof. Keirstead, to Mr. Geo. W. Borden, of this place.

THE FIRST FIRE.—We are informed that the store of Wm Stevens, which was burned at Port Williams last week, was the first building destroyed by fire at that place since its settlement.

HYMENAL.—We record this week the marriage of two Wolfville boys who have taken for themselves wives from among our neighbors across the border.

THE YARMOUTH LINE.—The steamer Yarmouth made her last trip to Boston, for the season on Wednesday week.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.—Every week this most valuable periodical presents the latest information in the world of science, art, and manufactures.

AYER'S ALMANAC.—At last we are treated to a novelty in the way of almanac making. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., the well known manufacturing chemists of Lowell, Mass., send us their almanac for 1889.

Christmas Presentations.—The congregation of the Wolfville Presbyterian church presented Mrs. J. D. Chambers, their organist, at Christmas, with a purse of money, as a small token of good will.

The Lower Horton section of Rev. R. D. Ross's congregation, presented their pastor and wife with a handsome eight day clock, as a Christmas gift.

CHOICE LABORER.—Choice Labrador herring in 1/2 barrel at Prat's.

MARRIED.—At the close of the public schools for the Christmas holidays the pupils of the advanced department presented Principal Bishop with a very fine pair of Kangaroo fur gloves, as a token of the esteem in which he is held by them.

BERWICK TIMES.

NEWS, NOTES, JOTTINGS, ETC.

Rev. D. O. Parker is our representative in Berwick, and is prepared to take orders for job printing and advertising. We are constantly adding to our plant, and will give prompt attention to all work.

Mr. Fred Fisher, of East Boston is on a visit to his old home and friends in Somerset and Berwick.

We are indebted to J. P. Chisman, Esq., for a box of choice oranges, direct from his plantation in Florida.

There is a favorable opening for a butcher to take the place of the late Mr. Forsythe. Several are prospecting, but there is room for only one.

During this week Mr. E. C. David, son has raised his house on Foster St and partly covered it in. The weather is unusually favorable for outside work.

Traders complain of dull holiday sales of the conventional novelties of the season, but thanks to Cupid and numerous friends, Mr. Parker has done a rushing business in furniture, carpets and picture frames.

New Years day was quite generally observed as a holiday in Berwick, especially by the young people many of whom heartily enjoyed skating on a neighboring pond where the ice was good notwithstanding the mildness of the season.

Temperance Sermon.—The Rev. Mr. Wade, Episcopal, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., preached in Christ's church on the first day of the new year.

Hantsport's school master abroad. A neat sign.—French Villa with a comma between French and Villa, painted by a Hantsport artist, has just been placed over the door of Mrs. Vaughan's hotel.

At its last meeting, Longfellow Division, S. of T., appointed a committee to consider the best course of action to awaken the people of our village for the suppression of the liquor traffic in our midst.

Dr. J. B. McLean, who confines his practice to the Eye, Ear, Throat, and the different forms of catarrhal diseases, is now in Kentville and will remain for several weeks.

TAKE NOTICE.—If your razor is dull, take it to J. M. Shaw's Barber Shop, and he will put it in first-class order for the small sum of 15c.

Undoubtedly the largest and finest display of holiday goods in town is to be seen at R. Prat's.

Choice Labrador herring in 1/2 barrel at Prat's.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride, Wintthrop, Mass., on Wednesday, Dec. 26th, Mr. Harry C. Gilmore, formerly of Wolfville, and Miss Ida M. Floyd.

HIGGINS—GRIDLEY.—At Vancouver, W. T., Dec. 10th, Mr. W. J. Higgins, formerly of Wolfville, and Miss Etta Genevieve Gridley, of Vancouver.

GRANT—HEM.—At Milton Baptist parsonage, Yarmouth, on Christmas Eve, by Rev. Mark B. Shaw, B. A., Mr. Charles Grant, of Yarmouth, and Miss Sophonia Hunt, of Cape Sable Island.

THE GLOBE Christmas NUMBER

READY FIRST WEEK IN DECEMBER, A GREAT HOLIDAY PAPER

New Type, New Press, Fine Paper, Five Handsome Lithographed Plates, First-Class Illustrations, Original Matter and Superior Workmanship.

THE BEST XMAS PAPER EVER ISSUED IN CANADA.

THE LITERARY MATTER in the CHRISTMAS GLOBE will be entirely original and will include stories from the ablest pens in Canada. The subjects treated being wholly Canadian.

FIVE HANDSOME LITHOGRAPHED PLATES accompany the paper, the principal one being a scene from Vancouver Park, B.C., from a painting by Mr. L. L. O'Brien, the celebrated Canadian artist.

MECHANICALLY the XMAS GLOBE will be in every way first-class and no expense will be spared in having it surpass anything of the kind heretofore published in this country.

AS THE DEMAND will be very great, we would advise intending purchasers to leave their orders at their newsdealer's or send direct to this office, not later than the end of the present month, as the supply will necessarily be limited and we cannot undertake to print a second edition.

The price has been placed at ONLY 25 CENTS PER COPY. It is intended to have the edition ready the first week in December in order to allow plenty of time for mailing copies long distances so as to reach destination before Christmas.

THE GLOBE PRINTING CO., Toronto.

THE WEEKLY GLOBE, the best family newspaper in Canada, THE RURAL CANADIAN, the best agricultural paper in Canada, 1 from now to end of 1889 only $1.25.
