THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 15, 1898.

Local and Provincial.

A quantity of matter prepared for this issue has been unavoidably crowded out.

The Wolfville band is expected to play at Evangeline Beach on Friday of next week.

Dr. A. J. McKenna, has our thanks for bundles of late Boston and New York papers.

Mr. W. J. Balcom's "beach express" will begin regular trips to Evangeline Beach on Monday next.

We have been requested to ask those interested in the flower mission to send donations of flowers to the committee, which meets at the vestry of the Baptist church from 4 to 5 o'clock every Monday.

The ACADIAN acknowledges with thanks a basket of new potatoes and beets from the garden of our esteemed and venerable friend, Capt. Gillmore. They were the first of the season for us and much enjoyed.

Summer Concerts 50c.—see adv. GLASGOW HOUSE.

In place of the regular preaching a missionary service, conducted by the members of the W. M. A. S., was held at the Baptist church last Sunday evening. Mrs. Trotter presided. An interesting programme was given.

The next general meeting of the Board of Trade will be held in Chambers' Hall on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is urgently requested as matters of importance will be discussed.

The Episcopal Sunday school of Paradise, came to Wolfville yesterday by the steamer Evangeline and held a picnic on grounds at the "Randall Hill." The day was a most pleasant one, and there was a large company of excursionists. Everything passed off quietly and the visitors apparently spent a most enjoyable day.

Evangeline Beach opened to the public on Monday, July 11th. There were not many present owing to the lateness of the tide. There were quite a number present on Tuesday attending the strawberry festival, the day being all that could be desired. The supper served by the ladies of Long Island was much enjoyed and reflected much credit on those engaged with the festival. The evening was charming. The tide being full, the basin presented a beautiful sight.

The recent departure of Rev. Mr. Donkin from this town, with the deep and general regret expressed at the severance of his ministerial connection with the Methodist church here, has served to demonstrate in an emphatic manner the Reverend gentleman's popularity, both among the members of his own congregation and with the community at large. Mr. Donkin's clear diction, earnest manner and absolute absence of anything approaching cant, made him an exceptionally effective pulpit orator, and a pleasant and most interesting speaker, while, at the same time, his sound common sense and great moderation enabled him, while laboring strenuously in his work, to avoid giving offence even to those whose views, perhaps, may have differed from his own. Mr. Donkin and his useful and agreeable helpmate go hence with the best wishes of all for their happiness, welfare, and success in the new field of labor to which they are removed.—Liverpool Advance.
