

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., AUG. 5, 1910.

The Charlottetown Guardian says it has heard a rumor that the C. P. R. intended building a line of railway from Truro to Wallace, Windsor people have heard of a rumor that the C. P. R. intended connecting Windsor with Chester. There seems to be no limit to what people expect the big corporation to do.

The English Commoners have expressed themselves as favoring the change in the Coronation Oath. If the bill making the change legal passes the Lords King George will not be called upon to declare that Roman Catholics are given to idolatrous practices nor that he is a member of the Church of England. The declaration will be that he is a supporter of the Protestant faith.

Over 5,000 students wrote the Provincial Government examinations throughout the province this year. This number is about five hundred better than last year. Then there was only about 1,500. A few years ago the total amount of writers aggregated about 2,000.

Education that this province is making fairly satisfactory progress in the development of its common school system.

Cuba is being disturbed by another insurrectionary movement, which it is feared may be serious in character. It is not known that successful insurrection in Cuba would produce any general good. The government of the island appears to be as good as the people can appreciate. Long years of encouraged disturbance, however, may have begot in the Cuban an insurrectionary habit that he cannot shake off and so, what would drive a resident of colder latitudes to write to the papers sends him to the hills with a gun.

In our Canadian Dominion dwells a young Russian, who is absolute czar over 10,000 Doukhobors. Under Peter Verigin's leadership these people seem to be prospering, and it is thought that in time will be assimilated into thrifty, honest, hard working Canadians. Lately Verigin has purchased 3,500 acres of land near Nelson, B. C., and purposes giving some attention to fruit culture. He has planted 15,000 trees this year, making 20,000 altogether. 1,000 being prunes, and the rest principally apples. He is also operating a brick yard, saw mill and grist mill, and is planning to secure yet larger holdings of land.

The Canadian Magazine for August is a unusually strong number. Perhaps the feature of most importance is the article by Professor W. A. Grant entitled "Goldwin Smith and the Canadian Magazine." Professor Grant has been for some time lecturer on Colonial History at Oxford, and the researches for this article were made by him. There is also a splendid appreciation by Dr. A. H. U. Colquhoun, Deputy Minister of Education for Ontario, of the work and place of Goldwin Smith in Canada. These two articles are well illustrated. Professor Archibald MacMechan contributes an entertaining account of some early Acadia settlers in Halifax. Mr. Arthur O. Wheeler, President of the Canadian Alpine Club, has a beautifully illustrated article on "Canada's Wonderland." The second act of Arthur Stringer's play "The Blot" is in this number, as well as some fine short stories.

One reason which I have heard given for Goldwin Smith's retirement to the United States may be set aside. It is that he was driven out of England by the attack of Disraeli in "Lothair." Disraeli had been hiding his time, and with Semitic malice introduced into "Lothair" an Oxford professor, described in words full of those half-truths which bite like an acid.

Goldwin Smith, who had all the sensitiveness of a man bred in the Common Room, must have felt stinging in every word. Only the master of satire can feel his full force in the hand of an opponent. But the attack cannot have driven him out of England, for the good reason that while he left England in 1868 "Lothair" was not published till 1870.

But we must not leave Goldwin Smith with the arrow of the bravo in his side. One who sees how much he did for Oxford at a time when her freedom was in peril will rather apply to him the words in which a noble soldier in the liberation-war of humanity, "Doctor A. H. U. Colquhoun, in The Canadian Magazine for August.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do for other weak and worn women just what they did for Mrs. Wright, if they are given a fair trial. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

At Father Point, P. Q., on the arrival of the S.S. Montrose, Sunday morning, Dr. Crippen and a woman companion dressed in men's clothes and represented on the passenger list as the Dr.'s son, were arrested on the charge of murdering Mrs. Crippen in England in February. Only recently the murder was discovered. The flag fish police set at once about the discovery of Crippen. Wireless telegraphy played an important part in the case. The fugitives were located on board the ship at sea. An English police inspector starting by a faster steamer, reached Canada before the Montrose, and on Sunday made the arrest on the Montrose.

The Reviewer.

A NEW PERIL.

Not more than a couple of weeks ago a young woman was taken in charge by the Ottawa police, she having apparently lost all knowledge of both her whereabouts and identity. Later she got her bearing sufficiently to disclose her name and place of residence, and was released. Medical men interested in the strange case decided that the girl had been brought to so queer a pass, mentally, by over indulgence in tea-drinking.

We are well acquainted with the arguments of opponents of the liquor-drinking habit, and we need no special instruction on the evils which are bound to follow in the train of those engaged in drinking intoxicating beverages. But here is evidently an entirely new situation and one which opens up a fresh field for would-be moral reformers. And can one imagine what sort of a time the tea prohibitionist will have when he or she attacks the great army of women who believe in tea as they believe in their religion, the one a cure for soul ills, and the other a panacea for bodily ailments.

When it comes to excuses for tea-drinking the average woman is as well stocked with them as is the most rabid defender of a religious cult with arguments in defense of his particular faith.

When tea was first introduced into England at the time of the later Stuarts, the price was so high that only the wealthy could afford it. In the time of the second Charles it was costing $10 per pound. Some years later not more than 5,000 pounds per year were imported into all Great Britain. To-day the annual importation is more like 300,000,000 pounds, which is one might call going some.

It is low surmised that unless the women's favorite tipple is largely decreased in Canada, she is sure to become quite as much a slave to the habit, and in quite as much danger mentally, as is her lordly master from over indulgence in whiskey.

Broken Health Brings Wrinkles.
HOW ALL WOMEN CAN PRESERVE GOOD HEALTH AND GOOD LOOKS.
Too many women and girls look old before they should. In nine cases out of ten it is a matter of health. Work, worry, confinement indoors and lack of exercise cause the health to run down. Then faces become thin and pale; lines and wrinkles appear; there are headaches, backaches and a constant feeling of tiredness.

Women and girls who feel well look well. Therefore improve your health and you will look better. It is a fact that thousands of Canadian women and girls owe the robust health they enjoy to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They feel well and enjoy life as only a healthy person can do.

The simple reason for this is that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, rich, red blood, which strengthens the vital organs, brings brightness to the eye, a glow of health to the cheek, and bracing strength to every part of the body. Mrs. Warren Wright, Una, Sask., says: "I feel that I owe a debt of gratitude to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that nothing I can say in their favor will fully repay. I was so reduced in health and strength that I was hardly able to walk at all, and could do no work whatever. My blood was so thin and watery that my lips and finger tips resembled those of a corpse. I had almost constant headaches, and the smallest exertion would set my heart palpitating violently, and often I would drop in a faint. Nothing I did seemed to help me in the least, and I felt so far gone that I never expected to recover my health. I was in this critical condition when I read in a newspaper of a cure in a case like mine through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to try them. I got a half dozen boxes and before I used them all there was a great change in my condition. My appetite returned, the color began to come back to my lips and face, and my strength was increasing. I continued the use of the Pills for some time longer and they restored me to the pink of perfect health. While using the Pills I gained twenty pounds in weight. My cure was made in the summer of 1909, and I am now enjoying better health than ever before."

Two hundred years ago the first regular services in Canada according to the use of the Church of England were held at Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia, where after the capture of the fort by General Nicholson, a service of thanksgiving for the success of Her Majesty's (Queen Anne's) Arms was held by Rev. John Harrison, and a sermon preached by Rev. Samuel Hesketh. To-day the Church of England in Canada, has twenty-two dioceses stretching from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and the Bicentenary of its work in this Dominion is to be celebrated by special events at Halifax, Windsor and Annapolis Royal, the first week of September next.

At Halifax All Saints Cathedral, to-day the finest church edifice in Canada, erected at a cost of some $150,000 to be opened on September 2nd as a memorial in stone of the Bicentenary and the three following days a great Canadian Church Congress is to be held, at which there promises to be a record attendance.

On September 8th, a special Convocation will be held at King's College, Windsor, the oldest university in the British colonies, and on September 9th special services commemorative of the first services will be held at Annapolis Royal. Every Anglican diocese in Canada is sending delegates to the Congress, and the preachers and speakers include the names of many of the great leaders of the Anglican Church in England, Scotland and the United States, as well as Canada. Those from across the Atlantic are the Bishop of London, the Bishop of Glasgow, and Bishop Taylor Smith, chaplain general of the States will come the bishops of Washington, Massachusetts, Duluth, Colorado, Central New York, Tennessee, Indianapolis, Idaho, Harrisburg and the Philippine Islands, as well as many leading priests and laymen.

The distinguished Canadian ecclesiastics who will take part include the Archbishop of Rupertland and Ottawa, and the Bishops of Nova Scotia, Fredericton, Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Ontario, Huron, Niagara, Algoma, Calgary, Moosehide, New Westminster, and Columbia, while as for Deans, Archdeacons and Canons, they will be there by the score.

What Do You Know About It?

That's what a customer asked me recently about a patent medicine I had sold for years, and I was forced to admit that in reality I knew nothing more than what appeared on the label, wrapper and advertising.

Some of the claims made were so extravagant that of course I could not take them seriously, but concluded I had better find a line of remedies I did know something about.
