Rain Has Improved an Otherwise Poor Crop, and Grain Promises Well

The cutting of hay has become quite general in Carleton county. The crop is generally below the average. The cold dry weather of June, accompanied by several frosts, was responsible for the lack of growth. In the northern Counties reports indicate a very poor hay crop. Some reports state that old meadows are badly worth cutting. In the western section, the crop is later and will be helped some by recent rains. In the southern counties and York, the crop varies from average to poor, according to whether the meadow is new or old. The rain last week has done much to improve the standing crop. Nova Scotia reports a big hay yield, and so does Quebec.

Corn Crops generally have a good color and promise well at present. With a few good rains when the crop is heading and filling, there should be a good average crop. Pastures are good and recent rains will hold them for a time longer.

Cattle are generally in good condition. Potatoes are looking better than ever known at this season, being far advanced and free from disease and bugs.

James Rulston Fowler

The death of James Rulston Fowler occurred at his home, Lakeville, Carleton county, on Sunday, July 6, after an illness of two months from heart trouble. Mr. Fowler was born at Upham, Kings county, September 23, 1848, and was the youngest son of the late James Rulston Fowler and Rachel Mellick, direct descendants of the United Empire Loyalists. Mr. Fowler set up a blacksmith business in Lakeville more than forty years ago, and was in his younger days considered the best "horse-shoer" in that part of the county. He was also favorably known as the "wet shaper" of Lakeville, having led the choir for many years. He was a life long Conservative and a Methodist in religion. At the time of his death he was superintendent of the Union Sunday school of Lakeville. The funeral was held under the direction of the Hackett Loyal Orange Lodge. Rev. J. B. Champion (Methodist) and Rev. S. Johnston (Baptist) spoke, while beautiful music was rendered by the choir, among other selections, two duets by the Misses Maudie Hudson and Hilda Wilson and a solo by Miss Wilson. Mr. Fowler was laid to rest in the Williams-town cemetery, Monday afternoon beside the late Mrs. Fowler, who pre-deceased him by three years.

The sons and daughters are Mrs. M. L. P. Carvell, St. John; Mrs. J. S. MacBride, Boston; J. Fenwick, New Haven, Conn.; C. Leslie, Fort Fairfield; Mrs. E. M. Morse, Lakeville; Mrs. Arthur Howden, Dewar Lake, Sask.; George R. Halifax, Howard P., recently returned from overseas; fifteen grand children and a sister, Mrs. James Baxter, Westfield Centre.

GLORIOUS TWELFTH AT HOLMESVILLE

A Big Crowd and Good Feeling Prevailed

The members of Carleton North L. O. L. cordially and loyally celebrated "The Glorious Twelfth"—the 22nd anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne—with Crown Lodge of Holmesville. A very large crowd of people was on the ground all day in spite of a number of showers. There were many sports and refreshments were served in a number of booths. Crown Lodge also provided dinner and supper and a multitude was present all day and into the evening.

The Orangemen met at the hall at 2:30, and marched more than a mile to the picnic grounds. An address was given by P. G. M. David Hipwell of St. John and also by Brothers G. A. Giberson and B. F. Smith. Crown Lodge of Holmesville and British Lion Lodge of Glaceville have raised $350 toward the fund for building a provincial Protestant orphan home.

Victoria county Orangemen celebrated gloriously at River de Chate.

Fort Fairfield Notes

The Observer is indebted to the Review for the following items of local interest:

Mrs. Sarah McCrea went to Lakeville, Tuesday to visit relatives and friends.

Duncan Rogers and son, of Bristol, came to town Tuesday by auto, called here by the illness of the former's brother Sanford Rogers.

Miss Louise McGee, bookkeeper for Frontier Trust Company, was called to her home in Hartland, Saturday by the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyd of Pool, arrived in town Wednesday to visit several days with their sons, D. H., B. A. W. and Fenwick Boyd, also their daughter Mrs. Kate Stearns.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Keays and daughters Opal and Frances go to Campbellton, next Monday to visit Mr. Keays' mother, Mrs. William H. Keays, sr., also his sister for a week or ten days.

HARTLAND WINS FROM MARS HILL

Decidedly the sportiest game of base ball ever played on the Hartland diamond was pulled off on Tuesday evening, when the star aggregation from Mars Hill came up against the local team. It was really good ball as one wanted to see and the large crowd of spectators got their money's worth.

Four innings were played without a score and excitement grew tense. The score by innings is as follows:

Hartland 0 0 0 3 1 0 1 x—5

Billings pitched for Hartland throughout and won favorable comments and admiration from the large assembly of visiting spectators. The local team was in splendid form throughout.

Upwards of a hundred Mars Hill people accompanied their team here, there being 15 automobiles.

It will be recalled that a mastery game was played here with the Mars Hill team last year. In that game the scored tied in the seventh inning and five innings followed with no score, when darkness put an end to the sport.

At Bath on Monday evening Hartland team fell down badly, the Bath team running up a score of ten in the first inning.

Grand Falls team is due on the Hartland diamond tomorrow evening and a good game is anticipated.

Hartland plays at Bath on Saturday afternoon, and will play Centreville here on Tuesday. Hartland games start at 6 sharp.

Protestant Orphan Asylum

David Hipwell of St. John was calling on Hartland friends the first of the week. He formerly lived in Woodstock, and as a prominent Orangemen he is widely known. He is past Grand Master of the New Brunswick Lodge and informed The Observer that there is good prospect for the organization of a new lodge in Hartland.

The Grand Lodge has pledged itself to give $10,000 of the $120,000 required, to finance a provincial Protestant orphan home, and the money raised at the July Twelfth celebrations throughout the province this year to this cause. Mr. Hipwell was here in the interest of this movement. He addressed the Orangemen at Holmesville on Saturday (see report) and on Sunday he addressed the United Baptist Sunday school at East Florenceville, elucidating the project he is so interested in. It is expected that people at Florenceville will contribute a good sum as following Mr. Hipwell's address more than $75 was at once subscribed.

Cabled Shipments of Calves

An entirely new branch of the farming industry has opened up in the shipments of live calves. A buyer from the States was here last week, as well as local Jews and offered the farmers from $5 for "bobs" a few days old to $25 for good veals. From Hartland station three carloads were shipped to Boston last week. It is said the hides of the animals are put to the ordinary use and the flesh is made into the delicate viand known as veal loaf.

The sale of these calves is a distinct loss to the stock of the county. There are today 2000 less of neat stock in this immediate vicinity than there was a week ago. Big prices may have been secured, but when the farmer comes to think it over he may wish his calves back for further development.

Picnic at Liscard July 23

The Church of England congregation at Liscard will hold a picnic on July 23. There will be all the usual attractions and a base ball game. Both dinner and supper will be served, and a good time is assured all who attend.
