(Special to last Wednesday's Second Edition.) Boston, Nov. 4.—To-day the Presidential The day over the greater part of the vast Special to Gleaner.

London, Nov. S.—The Times this morning in a leader devoted to the American Presidential contest says it is unlikely that there will be any serious attempt to contest the result of the election. Blaine is a man of great gifts and is an accomplished speaker, but has unhappily identified himself with speculative schemes and moneyed interests. Cleveland has few brilliant qualities and his public career has been comparatively brief and modest, but he has shown a high sense to public duty and to faithfully discharge his trust without flavoring either the magnates of Wall Street or the demogogues. It is to be hoped that Bayard will accept office under Cleveland. Bayard is a man of the highest integrity and ability and will not discredit the best traditions of American diplomacy. The Democrats must now show that they are true to the principles of policical purity and administrative reform. The recent electoral contests, especially on tie Republican side, has disclosed the existence of widespread corruption, which has alarmed honorable men in all parties.
